TBG 2022 ABM, Asia Bike Media TBG 2022 Clothing and Fashion José Blanco F., Patricia Kay Hunt-Hurst, Heather Vaughan Lee, Mary Doering, 2015-11-23 This unique four volume encyclopedia examines the historical significance of fashion trends revealing the social and cultural connections of clothing from the precolonial times to the present day This sweeping overview of fashion and apparel covers several centuries of American history as seen through the lens of the clothes we wear from the Native American moccasin to Manolo Blahnik's contribution to stiletto heels Through four detailed volumes this work delves into what people wore in various periods in our country's past and why from hand crafted family garments in the 1600s to the rough clothing of slaves to the sophisticated textile designs of the 21st century More than 100 fashion experts and clothing historians pay tribute to the most notable garments accessories and people comprising design and fashion The four volumes contain more than 800 alphabetical entries with each volume representing a different era Content includes fascinating information such as that beginning in 1619 through 1654 every man in Virginia was required to plant a number of mulberry trees to support the silk industry in England what is known about the clothing of enslaved African Americans and that there were regulations placed on clothing design during World War II The set also includes color inserts that better communicate the visual impact of clothing and fashion across eras Why Would Anyone Do That? Stephen C. Poulson, 2016-04-19 Triathlons such as the famously arduous Ironman Triathlon and extreme mountain biking hair raising events held over exceedingly dangerous terrain are prime examples of the new lifestyle sports that have grown in recent years from oddball pursuits practiced by a handful of characters into multi million dollar industries In Why Would Anyone Do That sociologist Stephen C Poulson offers a fascinating exploration of these new and physically demanding sports shedding light on why some people find them so compelling Drawing on interviews with lifestyle sport competitors on his own experience as a participant on advertising for lifestyle sport equipment and on editorial content of adventure sport magazines Poulson addresses a wide range of issues He notes that these sports are often described as authentic challenges which help keep athletes sane given the demands they confront in their day to day lives But is it really beneficial to work so hard at play Is the discipline required to do these sports really an expression of freedom or do these sports actually impose extraordinary degrees of conformity upon these athletes Why Would Anyone Do That grapples with these questions and more generally with whether lifestyle sport should always be considered good for people Poulson also looks at what happens when a sport becomes a commodity even a sport that may have begun as a reaction against corporate and professional sport arguing that commodification inevitably plays a role in determining who plays and also how and why the sport is played It can even help provide the meaning that athletes assign to their participation in the sport Finally the book explores the intersections of race class and gender with respect to participation in lifestyle and endurance sports noting in particular that there is a near complete absence of people of color in most of these contests In addition Poulson examines how concepts of masculinity in triathlons have changed as women's roles in this sport increase Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory Carolyn Farquhar Ulrich, 2001 Willing's Press Guide and Advertisers' Directory and Handbook, 2001 Advanced
