Couture & Commerce Alexandra Palmer, Royal Ontario Museum, 2001 The 1950s were the golden years of haute couture captured by iconic images of glamorous models wearing dramatic clothes Yet the real women who wore these clothes adapted them to suit their own tastes altered them to extend their life and often could not bear to part with them long after the dresses had outlived their use This gorgeously illustrated book demonstrates why so many of these designs are still in existence and why we are fascinated by them fifty years later Couture and Commerce investigates how and why postwar couture fashion was important in its own day The Paris couture houses survived due to the enthusiasm of the North American fashion press and commercial buyers Alexandra Palmer traces the European haute couture trade with North America by following actual surviving couture dresses from the design house sketch through the model used in New York fashion shows and as a template for copies and knock offs and finally to the consumer Couture and Commerce is a remarkable mixture of accessible text color photographs of the original garments design house sketches and photographs retailers advertisements and society page images Weaving together analysis of the clothes and interviews with those who traded sold and wore couture Alexandra Palmer vividly recreates the 1950s fashion world Missed by the Recovery United States. Vaughan Grylls,2018-11-01 We have all squirmed at an uncomfortable interview Vaughan Grylls has squirmed at more than most Having had more interviews in his lifetime than anyone should reasonably expect Grylls with exemplary powers of recall recounts hilarious and often poignant years of painful interviews They range from childhood interviews for schools and then for colleges for university jobs for newspapers and even for the sack But Grylls has been on the other side of the desk as well as a teacher and finally as the director of an art college and this experience gives him a perspective on these excruciating rites of passage In this entertaining and enlightening expose of the interview room Grylls shows us all at whatever age what not to do Both an entertaining account of the life and work of a successful artist and educator who has held senior posts and been interviewed for others in both Ivy League and Cambridge Colleges as well as more modest institutions and also a self help book for anyone anticipating or planning for an interview The life lessons are gently imparted with humor and sensitivity while the critique of educational practice and the decline of the educational ideal is coruscating and vivid
