The Transnational Middle East Leïla Vignal, 2016-10-04 The Middle East has been undergoing new crises since the powerful socio political uprisings known as the Arab Spring took place in several countries in 2011 Some countries are experiencing a long term collapse of their political and social structures out of internal conflicts and external interventions The Transnational Middle East posits that in the Middle East the development of regional dynamics of processes and circulations of all kinds can be documented In this regard the approaches it develops bottom up regionalisation globalisation from below allow for a better understanding of the ways in which the Middle East is part of global transformations The book analyses how through their practices Middle East societies elaborate a regional space which is not institutionalised Based on fieldwork in the Middle East the book provides venues for further theoretical elaboration on globalisation and contemporary societies as well as on processes of regionalisation It draws on the emergence of genuine regional spaces of culture art economic activity human circulation which supplement and do not contradict other infra national national or global social processes As in other areas of the world these transformations are to a large extent the mode of the Middle East's insertion into globalisation In this respect they go against standard narratives of the supposed exceptionalism of the region This book will be a great contribution to comparative politics Middle Eastern studies globalisation and international relations The European Union and the Gulf Cooperation Council Adel Abdel Ghafar, Silvia Colombo, 2021-08-03 This book provides a comprehensive assessment of the various dimensions of the relationship between the European Union and the Gulf Cooperation Council and highlights how relations are yet to reach their full potential Despite both parties sharing a number of common interests including trade energy climate change security and cultural cooperation the multilateral cooperation framework remains limited with most engagement taking place bilaterally between individual European and GCC countries The book reassesses the potential and prospects for the EU's engagement with GCC countries based on the recalibration and reconciliation of both parties national and regional interests Taking a thematic approach each of the three sections of the book examines a key dimension of the relationship its current status and its path forward International Institutions of the Middle East James Worrall, 2017-03-16 This volume is a key text for understanding the major regional international organizations of the Middle East Analysing the Arab League the Gulf Cooperation Council and the Arab Maghreb Union in a concise and accessible format it explores their successes and failures across their full range of activities economic social and political while contextualising the reasons why many consider that these organizations have stalled The book assesses the reasons why IOs in the Middle East are under developed relative to neighbouring regional organizations explores their history evolution and structure while considering the successes and failures of each IO analyses the reasons for the specific difficulties faced by each organization through the context of intra regional relations develops a new framework for analysing the forces that have shaped these bodies and challenges the existing narrative that largely ignores the achievements and prospects of the organizations considers the likely impact of the Arab Spring upon the future development of these frequently overlooked regional international organizations This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Middle East studies international organizations and global governance as well as diplomats and policymakers Foreign Policy in North Africa Irene Fernandez Molina, Miguel Hernando de Larramendi, 2020-12-17 Foreign Policy in North Africa explores how the foreign policies of North African states which occupy a peripheral and subaltern position within the global system have actively responded to the constraints and opportunities stemming from multi level transformations in the 2010s What has been the extent of continuity and change in each country's foreign policy making and behaviour under such conditions Which structural and agential factors explain the variations observed or the lack thereof Building on scholarship on foreign policy in the Global South and the Middle East and North Africa MENA as well as the international impact of the 2011 Arab uprisings case studies on six different countries focus on a specific level of analysis for each These range from the global Tunisia's financial predicaments and foreign debt negotiations through the sub regional Egypt's relationship of necessity with Saudi Arabia Algeria's half hearted policies towards the conflicts in Libya and Mali to the domestic sphere Morocco's power balance between the monarchy and the Islamist led government Libya's extreme state weakness and internal competition among proliferating actors reaching also the deeper non state societal level in the case of Mauritania The volume concludes by examining post 2011 developments in the longstanding Algerian Moroccan rivalry which hinders regional integration in the Maghreb Foreign Policy in North Africa will be of great interest to scholars of North African politics and international relations Middle Eastern and North African studies foreign policy and global international relations The chapters were originally published as a special issue of The Journal of North African Studies

The EU in a Trans-European Space Serena Giusti,Irina Mirkina,2019-02-19 This book examines political social and economic interactions in highly interconnected areas stretching from Europe to Eastern Europe North Africa the Middle East and East Asia labelled as Trans Europe The first part of the book focuses on the interests of several leading actors in Trans Europe The second part deals with the actions of national actors trying to compete with the EU influence in their shared neighbourhood The third part studies cross border issues such as economic dynamics migration flows and energy markets in the Trans European space

Community Heritage in the Arab Region Arwa Badran,Shatha Abu-Khafajah,Sarah Elliott,2022-11-07 This book investigates approaches to community heritage within the Arab region and the underlying theories associated with these approaches It aims within the context of the region to define community and heritage as well as examine the emergence and development of this field The volume s contributors deploy a wealth of case studies from the Middle East and North Africa to provide a unique forum for discussion comparability analysis and deeper understandings of current trends in community heritage In particular the volume explores the relationship between communities and their heritage the meanings and values placed upon it the nature and degree of community participation and engagement in its interpretation and management and how its different registers affect and produce sometimes unexpected community heritage formations It also examines the level of responsibility held within the profession towards this essentially democratic process of public participation in their heritage in a region shaped by controversial histories political turmoil and tourism driven economies The volume builds on current research and practice in community heritage globally by debating and re centring a suite of familiar and new issues related to hitherto under researched regional specific methodologies and developing fresh insight into the theoretical underpinning of these practices It will be of value to heritage scholars and practitioners as well as those interested in politics identity education and the dynamics of heritage based sustainable development
