Architecture And Capitalism 1845 To The Present:

Architecture and Capitalism Peggy Deamer, 2013-07-18 Architecture and Capitalism tells a story of the relationship between the economy and architectural design. Eleven historians each discuss in brand new essays the time period they know best looking at cultural and economic issues which in light of current economic crises you will find have dealt with diverse but surprisingly familiar economic issues. Told through case studies the narrative begins in the mid nineteenth century and ends with 2011 with introductions by Editor Peggy Deamer to pull the main themes together so that you can see how other architects in different times and in different countries have dealt with similar economic conditions. By focussing on what previous architects experienced you have the opportunity to avoid repeating the past. With new essays by Pier Vittorio Aureli, Ellen Dunham Jones, Keller Easterling, Lauren Kogod, Robert Hewison, Joanna Merwood, Salisbury Robin, Schuldenfrei, Deborah Gans, Simon Sadler, Nathan Rich and Micahel Sorkin.

Architecture and Labor Peggy Deamer, 2020-04-07 Through a collection of 13 chapters Peggy Deamer examines the profession of architecture not as an abstraction but as an assemblage of architectural workers. What forces prevent architects from empowering ourselves to be more relevant and better rewarded? How can these forces be set aside by new narratives, new organizations and new methods of production? How can we sit at the decision making table to combat short term real estate interests for longer term social and ethical value? How can we pull architecture, its conceptualization, its pedagogy and its enactment into the 21st century without succumbing to its neoliberal paradigm? In addressing these controversial questions Architecture and Labor brings contemporary discourses on creative labor to architecture, a discipline devoid of labor consciousness. This book addresses how not just what architects produce and focuses not on the past but on the present. It is sympathetic to the particularly intimate way that architects approach their design work while contextualizing that work historically, institutionally, economically and ideologically. Architecture and Labor is sure to be a compelling read for pre professional students, academics and practitioners.

A History of Architecture and Trade Patrick Haughey, 2018-01-19 A History of Architecture and Trade draws together essays from an international roster of distinguished and emerging scholars to critically examine the important role architecture and urbanism played in the past five hundred years of global trading, moving away from a conventional Western narrative. The book uses an alternative holistic lens through which to view the development of architecture and trade, covering diverse topics such as the coercive urbanism of the Dutch East India Company, how slavery and capitalism shaped architecture and urbanization and the importance of Islamic trading in the history of global trade. Each chapter examines a key site in history using architecture, landscape and urban scale as evidence to show how trade has shaped them. It will appeal to scholars and researchers interested in areas such as world history, economic and trade history and architectural history.

Reflections on Architecture, Society and Politics Graham Cairns, 2016-10-04 Reflections on Architecture, Society and Politics brings together a series of thirteen interview articles by Graham Cairns in collaboration with some of the most prominent polemic thinkers and critical practitioners from the fields of architecture and the social sciences including Noam Chomsky Peggy Deamer Robert A M Stern Daniel Libeskind and Kenneth Frampton Each chapter explores the relationship between architecture and socio political issues through discussion of architectural theories and projects citing specific issues and themes that have led to and will shape the various aspects of the current and future built environment Ranging from Chomsky s examination of the US Mexico border as the architecture of oppression to Robert A M Stern s defence of projects for the Disney corporation and George W Bush this book places politics at the center of issues within contemporary architecture

Architecture and Feminisms Hélène Frichot, Catharina Gabriellsson, Helen Runting, 2017-11-10 Set against the background of a general crisis that is environmental political and social this book examines a series of specific intersections between architecture and feminisms understood in the plural The collected essays and projects that make up the book follow transversal trajectories that criss cross between ecologies economies and technologies exploring specific cases and positions in relation to the themes of the archive control work and milieu This collective intellectual labour can be located amidst a worldwide depletion of material resources a hollowing out of political power and the degradation of constructed and natural environments Feminist positions suggest ways of ethically coping with a world that is becoming increasingly unstable and contested The many voices gathered here are united by the task of putting critical concepts and feminist design tools to use in order to offer experimental approaches to the creation of a more habitable world Drawing inspiration from the active archives of feminist precursors existing and re imagined and by way of a re engagement in the histories theories and projected futures of critical feminist projects the book presents a collection of twenty three essays and eight projects with the aim of taking stock of our current condition and re engaging in our precarious environment worlds

Spaces of Justice Chris Butler, Edward Mussawir, 2017-02-10 This collection is inspired by the transdisciplinary possibilities posed by the connections between space and justice Drawing on a variety of theoretical influences that include Henri Lefebvre Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari Doreen Massey Gillian Rose Walter Benjamin Elias Canetti Antonio Negri and Yan Thomas the contributors to this book conduct a series of jurisprudential aesthetic and political inquiries into just modes of occupying space and the ways in which space comes under the signs of law and justice Bringing together leading critical legal scholars with theorists and practitioners from other disciplines within the humanities Spaces of Justice investigates unexplored associations between law and architectural theory the visual arts geography and cultural studies The book contributes to the ongoing destabilisation of the boundaries between law and the broader humanities and will be of considerable interest to scholars and students with an interest in the normative dimensions of law s spatial turn

The Politics of Parametricism Matthew Poole, Manuel Shvartzberg, 2015-10-22 Over the last decade parametricism has been heralded as a new avant garde in the industries of architecture urban design and industrial design regarded by many as the next grand style in the history of architecture heir to postmodernism and deconstruction From buildings to cities the built environment is increasingly addressed designed and constructed using digital software based on parametric scripting platforms which claim to be able to process complex physical and social modelling alike As more and more digital tools are developed into an apparently infinite repertoire of socio technical functions critical questions concerning these cultural and technological shifts are often eclipsed by the seductive aesthetic and the alluring futuristic imaginary that parametric design tools and their architectural products and discourses represent The Politics of Parametricism addresses these issues offering a collection of new essays written by leading international thinkers in the fields of digital design architecture theory and technology Exploring the social political ethical and philosophical issues at stake in the history practice and processes of parametric architecture and urbanism each chapter provides different vantage points to interrogate the challenges and opportunities presented by this latest mode of technological production

When Eero Met His Match Eva Hagberg, 2022-09-13 A uniquely personal biographical account of Louchheim's life and work that takes readers inside the rarified world of architecture media Aline B Louchheim 1914-1972 was an art critic on assignment for the New York Times in 1953 when she first met the Finnish American architect Eero Saarinen She would become his wife and the driving force behind his rise to critical prominence When Eero Met His Match draws on the couple's personal correspondence to reconstruct the early days of their thrilling courtship and traces Louchheim's gradual takeover of Saarinen's public narrative in the 1950s the decade when his career soared to unprecedented heights Drawing on her own experiences as an architecture journalist on the receiving end of press pitches and then as a secret publicist for high end architects Eva Hagberg paints an unforgettable portrait of Louchheim while revealing the inner workings of a media world that has always relied on secrecy friendship and the exchange of favors She describes how Louchheim codified the practices of architectural publicity that have become widely adopted today and shows how without Louchheim as his wife and publicist Saarinen's work would not have been nearly as well known Providing a new understanding of postwar architectural history in the United States When Eero Met His Match is both a poignant love story and a superb biographical study that challenges us to reconsider the relationship between fame and media representation and the ways the narratives of others can become our own Art and Resistance in Germany Deborah Ascher Barnstone, Elizabeth Otto, 2018-11-01 In light of the recent rise of right wing populism in numerous political contexts and in the face of resurgent nationalism racism misogyny homophobia and demagoguery this book investigates how historical and contemporary cultural producers have sought to resist confront confound mock or call out situations of political oppression in Germany a country which has seen a dramatic range of political extremes during the past century While the current turn to nationalist populism is global it is perhaps most disturbing in Germany given its history with its stormy first democracy in the interwar Weimar Republic its infamous National Socialist Nazi period of the 1930s and 1940s and its split Cold War existence with Marxist Leninist Totalitarianism in the German Democratic Republic and the Federal Republic of Germany s barely hidden ties to the Nazi past Equally important Germans have long considered art and culture critical to constructions of national identity which meant that they were frequently implicated in political action This book therefore examines a range of work by artists from the early twentieth century to the present work created in an array of contexts and media that demonstrates a wide range of possible resistance
