The Seven Sacraments of the Catholic Church Archibald L.H.M. van Wieringen, 2022-08-06 The strong relationship between the Bible and the sacraments of the Catholic Church is generally accepted in theology This monograph approaches this relationship from a synchronic perspective This fresh perspective opens up new windows providing insight into similarities found in the various rites in and outside the Catholic Church For example the basic biblical pattern of the celebration of the Eucharist Last Supper appears to be standard It also poses critical questions regarding sacramental theology in general especially to the problematic equation of the proper name Jesus and the title Christ Archibald L H M van Wieringen professor of Old Testament at the Tilburg School of Catholic Theology has published on Isaiah Amos communication oriented analysis and biblical theology He is a priest of the diocese of Haarlem Amsterdam

The Catechumenate in Late Antique Africa (4th -6th centuries) Matthieu Pignot, 2020-07-13 In The Catechumenate in Late Antique Africa 4th 6th centuries Matthieu Pignot explores how individuals became Christian in ancient North Africa Before baptism converts first became catechumens and spent a significant time of gradual integration into the community through rituals and teaching This book provides the first historical study of this process in African sources from Augustine of Hippo to canon of councils anonymous sermons and 6th century letters Pignot shows that practices varied more than is generally assumed and that catechumens because of their liminal position were a disputed and essential group in the development of Christian communities until the 6th century at least This book demonstrates that the catechumenate is key to understanding the processes of Christianisation and conversion in the West
