excluded Perfume on the Page in Nineteenth-Century France Cheryl Krueger, 2023-06-26 Despite long standing assertions that languages including French and English cannot sufficiently communicate the experience of smell much of France's nineteenth century literature has gained praise for its memorable evocation of odours As French perfume was industrialized democratized cosmeticized and feminized in the nineteenth century stories of fragrant scent trails aligned perfume with toxic behaviour and viewed a woman's scent as something alluring but also something to be controlled Drawing on a wealth of resources Perfume on the Page in Nineteenth Century France explores how fiction and related writing on olfaction meet permeate and illuminate one another The book examines medical tracts letters manuscripts posters print advertisements magazine articles perfume manuals etiquette books interviews and encounters with fragrant materials themselves Cheryl Krueger explores how the olfactory language of a novel or poem conveys the distinctiveness of a text its unique relationship to language its style and its ways of engaging the reader its signature scent Shedding light on the French perfume culture that we know today Perfume on the Page in Nineteenth Century France follows the scent trails that ultimately challenge us to read perfume and literature in new ways Gender, Space, and the Gaze in Post-Haussmann Visual Culture Temma Balducci, 2017-03-27 Relying on a range of visual and written sources Gender Space and the Gaze offers fresh ways of considering how masculinity and femininity were lived in late nineteenth century Paris The book moves beyond shopworn dichotomies rooted in Baudelaire's The Painter of Modern Life 1863 that have shaped scholarship on this period A Companion to Impressionism André Dombrowski, 2021-08-31 The 21st century's first major academic reassessment of Impressionism providing a new generation of scholars with a comprehensive view of critical conversations Presenting an expansive view of the study of Impressionism this extraordinary volume breaks new thematic ground while also reconsidering established questions surrounding the definition chronology and membership of the Impressionist movement In 34 original essays from established and emerging scholars this collection considers a diverse range of developing topics and offers new critical approaches to the interpretation of Impressionist art Focusing on the 1860s to 1890s this Companion explores artists who are well represented in Impressionist studies including Monet Renoir Degas and Cassatt as well as Morisot Caillebotte Bazille and other significant yet lesser known artists The essays cover a wide variety of methodologies in addressing such topics as Impressionism's global predominance at the turn of the 20th century the relationship between Impressionism and the emergence of new media the materials and techniques of the Impressionists and the movement's exhibition and reception history Part of the acclaimed Wiley Blackwell Companions to Art History series this important new addition to scholarship in this field Reevaluates the origins chronology and critical reception of French Impressionism Discusses Impressionism's account of modern identity in the contexts of race nationality gender and sexuality Explores the global reach and influence of Impressionism in Europe the Middle East East Asia North Africa and the Americas Considers Impressionism's relationship to the emergence of film and photography in the 19th century Considers Impressionism's representation of the private sphere as compared to its depictions of public issues such as empire, finance and environmental change. Addresses the Impressionist market and clientele, period criticism and exhibition displays from the late 19th century to the middle of the 20th century. Features original essays by academics, curators and conservators from around the world including those from France, Germany, the United States, the United Kingdom, Japan, Turkey and Argentina. The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Impressionism is an invaluable text for students and academics studying Impressionism and late 19th century European art, Post Impressionism, modern art and modern French cultural history. Marianne Meets the Mormons Heather Belnap, Corry Cropper, Daryl Lee, 2022-10-25. In the nineteenth century, a fascination with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints made Mormons and Mormonism a common trope in French journalism, art, literature, politics and popular culture. Heather Belnap, Corry Cropper and Daryl Lee bring to light French representations of Mormonism from the 1830s to 1914, arguing that these portrayals often critiqued and parodied French society. Mormonism became a pretext for reconsidering issues such as gender, colonialism, the family and church-state relations while providing artists and authors with a means for working through the possibilities of their own evolving national identity. Surprising and innovative, Marianne Meets the Mormons looks at how nineteenth-century French observers engaged with the idea of Mormonism in order to reframe their own cultural preoccupations. "Women, Femininity and Public Space in European Visual Culture, 1789-1914" Temma Balducci, 2017-07-05. Focusing on images of or produced by well-to-do nineteenth-century European women, this volume explores genteel femininity as resistant to easy codification. Vis is the public. Attending to various iterations of the public as space, sphere and discourse, sixteen essays challenge the false binary construct that has held the public as the sole preserve of prosperous men. By contrast, the essays collected in Women, Femininity and Public Space in European Visual Culture, 1789-1914 demonstrate that definitions of both femininity and the public were mutually defining and constantly shifting. In examining the relationship between affluent women, femininity and the public, the essays gathered here consider works by an array of artists that includes canonical ones such as Mary Cassatt and Frans G. as well as understudied women artists including Louise Abbéma and Bronzia Koller. The essays also consider works in a range of media from fashion prints and paintings to private journals and architectural designs, facilitating an analysis of femininity in public across the cultural production of the period. Various European centers including Madrid, Florence, Paris, Brittany, Berlin and London emerge as crucial sites of production for genteel femininity, providing a long overdue rethinking of modern femininity in the public sphere. Surviving Revolution Denise Z. Davidson, 2025-10-15. Surviving Revolution explores how two wealthy and well-connected families with roots in Lyon responded to the French Revolution and the resulting transformations. In building a new political system based on liberty, equality and fraternity, the French Revolution encouraged both individuals and families to recognize their power to shape the world through political action, rethink their strategies in negotiating intimate relations and family life, and assess both terrifying new risks and enticing opportunities for advancement.

Denise Z Davidson traces two families trajectories and weaves together the strategies they employed to survive and hopefully thrive in the decades that followed the Revolution Their private correspondence shows that affect and interest intimacy and property are mutually constitutive and cannot be thought separately Her analysis reveals what it meant to be bourgeois how gender played a role in the formation of class identities and how family and emotional life overlapped with other arenas These social and cultural themes are woven into the narrative through the stories told in the families letters By viewing dramatic historical events through the eyes of people who lived through them Surviving Revolution illuminates how the practices of everyday life shaped emerging notions of bourgeois identity

Women, Femininity and Public Space in European Visual Culture, 1789-1914 Dr Temma Balducci, Asst Prof Heather Belnap Jensen, 2014-11-28 Focusing on images of or produced by nineteenth century European women this volume explores genteel femininity as resistant to easy codification vis vis the public Attending to various iterations of the public as space sphere and discourse sixteen essays challenge the false binary construct that has held the public as the sole preserve of prosperous men By considering works in a range of media by an array of canonical and understudied women artists they demonstrate that definitions of both femininity and the public were mutually defining and constantly shifting

Fashion Victims Alison Matthews David, 2015-09-24 From insidious murder weapons to blaze igniting crinolines clothing has been the cause of death disease and madness throughout history by accident and design Clothing is designed to protect shield and comfort us yet lurking amongst seemingly innocuous garments we find hats laced with mercury frocks laden with arsenic and literally drop dead gorgeous gowns Fabulously gory and gruesome Fashion Victims takes the reader on a fascinating journey through the lethal history of women s men s and children s dress in myth and reality Drawing upon surviving fashion objects and numerous visual and textual sources encompassing louse ridden military uniforms accounts of the fiery deaths of Oscar Wilde s half sisters and dancer Isadora Duncan s accidental strangulation by entangled scarf the book explores how garments have tormented those who made and wore them and harmed animals and the environment in the process Vividly chronicling evidence from Greek mythology to the present day Matthews David puts everyday apparel under the microscope and unpicks the dark side of fashion Fashion Victims is lavishly illustrated with over 125 images and is a remarkable resource for everyone from scholars and students to fashion enthusiasts
