Becoming An Embedded Librarian Making Connections In The Classroom:

Becoming an Embedded Librarian Michelle Reale, 2015-09-01 Embedded librarianship is not one size fits all yet many books on the subject treat it in a cold objective manner that doesn't adequately communicate how becoming an embedded librarian actually works in the real world Here Reale shares her own university classroom experiences to offer a step by step primer for those contemplating the practice Demystifying what can sometimes feel intimidating to academic librarians this down to earth resource defines what embedded librarianship is and isn't explains why being in the classroom is so important and how it creates communities of learning shows how to clarify the role of the librarian in a classroom by being a facilitator of process offers strategies for relationship building setting goals and honing a teaching style and discusses embedded librarianship and branding Readers will feel confident applying the lessons learned from Reale's first hand account to their own experiences both in and out of the classroom Embedded Librarianship Making Connections in the Classroom

Michelle Reale, 2015-12-01 Collaboration and the Academic Library Jeremy Atkinson, 2018-02-01 Collaboration and the Academic Library Internal and External Local and Regional National and International explores the considerable change that has affected universities and academic libraries in recent years Given this complex and important context it is clear that the academic library increasingly needs to operate in partnership with its users and other professionals and organizations to be successful in meeting the needs of its clientele Academic librarians need to work closely with client groups so that services are relevant and close partnerships with other professionals need to be forged to provide seamless services for users The book looks at all aspects of collaboration affecting academic libraries both internally and externally to help the reader understand future directions for collaborative activities in a complex and difficult working environment Considers collaboration issues affecting academic libraries Covers both internal and external collaboration Provides readers with direction for collaborative activities Shows how academic librarians can work with client groups to keep services relevant

The Indispensable Academic Librarian Michelle Reale, 2018-11-29 Traditionally academic librarians have delivered beck and call service to educators both in and out of the classroom However far from being merely auxiliary to the learning cycle academic librarians are educators in their own right If the primary challenge before them is to change how they are perceived within their institutions Reale proposes the key lies in becoming a proactive teacher and collaborator Offering strategies applicable to many different areas this book shows how the academic librarian can be an educator in both structured and unstructured spaces on campuses Blending practice based evidence with a warm approach Reale discusses the changing perception of academic librarians how they are seen and how they see themselves shows how academic librarians can and should assert their rightful place in the learning cycle looks at how to match teaching goals with academic librarians mission advocates for the indispensable roles the academic librarian should play including co collaborator one on one research consultant expert at large in non structured spaces such as the dorm or student lounge and embedded librarian in the classroom offers talking points for self advocacy looking at the many ways academic librarians are making a difference and explores activities and programming for engagement and learning This book will empower and validate academic librarians by demonstrating their indispensable roles as educators Intentional Marketing Carol Ottolenghi, 2018-10-15 User friendly cost conscious and filled with examples from libraries of all types Intentional Marketing A Practical Guide for Librarians helps you maximize the return on your marketing investment ROMI by showing ways to combine marketing theory with in house data creating a global strategy that will drive all of your library marketing This book includes Discussions of marketing theory and how a global approach makes marketing easier more effective and less expensive Step by step guides to help define what you are marketing why you are marketing it and to whom Ways to identify everyone who affects funding and how to turn them into stakeholders Ways to increase staff and stakeholder buy in Examples of successful marketing efforts at other libraries Discussions of different marketing tools print and digital publications social media special events public relations programming etc their costs and how to determine which to use Model feedback and assessment forms This book is a reference handbook with examples and step by step guides It is written for library staff members who are currently implementing components of marketing in a piecemeal fashion and need a unifying context to streamline their efforts and improve their effectiveness High-Impact Practices in Online Education Kathryn E. Linder, Chrysanthemum Mattison Hayes, 2023-07-03 This volume offers the first comprehensive guide to how high impact practices HIPs are being implemented in online environments and how they can be adjusted to meet the needs of online learners This multi disciplinary approach will assist faculty and administrators to effectively implement HIPs in distance education courses and online programs With a chapter devoted to each of the eleven HIPs this collection offers guidance that takes into account the differences between e learners and traditional on campus students A primary goal of High Impact Practices Online is to share the ways in which HIPs may need to be amended to meet the needs of online learners Through specific examples and practical suggestions in each chapter readers are introduced to concrete strategies for transitioning HIPs to the online environment that can be utilized across a range of disciplines and institution types Each chapter of High Impact Practices Online also references the most recent and relevant literature on each HIP so that readers are brought up to date on what makes online HIPs successful The book provides guidance on how best to implement HIPs to increase retention and completion for online learners Successful Campus Outreach for Academic Libraries Peggy Keeran, Carrie Forbes, 2018-09-22 In Successful Campus Outreach for Academic Libraries Building Community Through Collaboration Peggy Keeran and Carrie Forbes bring together a variety of ways academic libraries are engaging with their communities through outreach with creativity and the spirit of collaboration as major themes throughout As a compendium of best practices it serves as a resource for academic librarians to discover new programming ideas to learn principles of effective marketing and to help them think strategically and programmatically about outreach activities of all types Topics are presented in four sections Strategic Vision and Planning Developing and Implementing Successful Programs Community Outreach The Academic Library in the Community Broadening Library Outreach Audiences Practitioners designing outreach programs and activities will benefit from learning about a diverse set of outreach practices from libraries The Community College Library Janet Pinkley, Kaela Casey, 2022-04-13 Community colleges are a cornerstone of higher education and serve the unique needs of the communities in which they reside In 2019 community colleges accounted for 41 percent of all undergraduate students in the United States Community college librarians are engaged in meaningful work designing and delivering library programs and services that meet the needs of their diverse populations and support student learning The Community College Library series is meant to lift the voices of community college librarians and highlight their creativity tenacity and commitment to students The Community College Library Reference and Instruction collects research programs and new approaches to reference and instruction implemented by community college librarians around the U S Chapters include sample activities and materials and cover topics including using race centered and trauma informed practices in the reference interview incorporating online workshops into an existing information literacy program and using student driven pedagogy to navigate the early stages of research This book demonstrates the innovative and replicable ways community college librarians are meeting the information and research needs of their college population both in person and remotely all while providing a safe inclusive space for students to explore and learn Getting a Job in Education Laura La Bella, 2016-07-15 Jobs in education can be the most fulfilling and challenging out there The responsibility to help young minds to flower and develop and older minds too is a great one This book familiarizes readers with the academic and professional tracks necessary not only for those interested in becoming teachers and teaching assistants but also for those interested in the gamut of related and supporting positions within schools including administrative roles Necessary educational requirements and typical job and career tracks are discussed in a work that will arm potential educators with the knowledge they need to secure employment Data Literacy in Academic Libraries Julia Bauder, 2021-07-21 We live in a data driven world much of it processed and served up by increasingly complex algorithms and evaluating its quality requires its own skillset As a component of information literacy it is crucial that students learn how to think critically about statistics data and related visualizations Here Bauder and her fellow contributors show how librarians are helping students to access interpret critically assess manage handle and ethically use data Offering readers a roadmap for effectively teaching data literacy at the undergraduate level this volume explores such topics as the potential for large scale library faculty partnerships to incorporate data literacy instruction across the undergraduate curriculum how the principles of the ACRL Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education can help to situate data literacy within a broader information literacy context a report on the expectations of classroom faculty concerning their students data literacy skills various ways that librarians can partner with faculty case studies of two initiatives spearheaded by Purdue University Libraries and

University of Houston Libraries that support faculty as they integrate more work with data into their courses Barnard College's Empirical Reasoning Center which provides workshops and walk in consultations to more than a thousand students annually how a one shot session using the PolicyMap data mapping tool can be used to teach students from many different disciplines diving into quantitative data to determine the truth or falsity of potential fake news claims and a for credit librarian taught course on information dissemination and the ethical use of information
