Bedford Postcard History:

New Bedford David R. Nelson, 2004 Westport and Weston William L. Scheffler, 1998-10 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Westport Connecticut a tourist mecca with an artistic reputation has been captured on numerous postcards featuring scenes of the New England town s shore its restaurants and inns and its stately homes and gardens The neighboring town of Weston where the beauty of the surroundings is paramount featured captivating nature scenes These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America s history This fascinating new history of Westport and Weston Connecticut showcases more than two hundred of the best vintage postcards dating from the late 1800s to the 1950s A Picture Postcard History of Fairhaven Joseph D. Thomas, Jay Avila, 2006 Postcard Memories of Bedford County, Tennessee, 2006 A Postcard History of the Passenger Liner Christopher Deakes, 2023-10-01 From around 1880 for almost a hundred years shipowners commissioned a wealth of paintings that depicted their magnificent liners as well as the routes they travelled their exotic destinations and life onboard These paintings rich in imagination and atmosphere appeared on postcards and posters of the day and were used to advertise the companies and their ships and so was born a whole genre that produced tens of thousands of paintings which formed a wonderful record of the great era of the passenger liner In 1900 there were over thirty shipping companies operating passenger liners across the North Atlantic Other oceans were similarly served But now with just a few exceptions the companies and their liners have disappeared along with the art they once inspired Little remains to recall this aspect of our maritime past except the postcards and they tell an evocative story of the vanished world of elegant ships and leisurely travel of social and political times much changed by the history of the past century Here brought vividly to life in more than 500 colourful postcards are the ships on which so many of our predecessors sailed as emigrants soldiers administrators or simply as tourists in days long past These cards which are now highly collectable show how steamships developed over the years but they are also a fine tribute to the artists who painted them This volume also includes a glossary of some 170 illustrators which forms an important reference section and advice on collecting

Bedford Alethea A. Yates, 2013 Before the post World War II construction boom Bedford Massachusetts was considered little more than a sleepy farming community yet it was host to a series of remarkable institutions In the late 1800s the Bedford Springs resort on Fawn Lake was a summertime haven for wealthy Bostonians From 1902 to 1918 large crowds traveled by streetcar to Lexington Park in Bedford to enjoy its zoo restaurant and rustic outdoor theater In 1900 Bedford s reputation as a rural temperance town attracted a hospital for the treatment of alcoholism Ten years later the Willard Hospital was succeeded by Llewsac Lodge a rest home and country retreat for women from the city Proximity to Boston and the needs of both military and civil aviation led to the construction of the Laurence G Hanscom Airport in 1941 Today
