Between Two Worlds My Life And Captivity In Iran:

Between Two Worlds Roxana Saberi, 2011-04-12 In early 2009 Roxana Saberi an American journalist born to Iranian and Japanese parents was forced from her home in Tehran secretly detained and falsely accused of espionage then sentenced to eight years in prison Between Two Worlds is the gripping and inspirational true story of her harrowing imprisonment and the faith that got her through it until an international outcry helped secure her release Along the way Saberi gained strength from other prisoners brave women jailed for their pursuit of human rights such as the freedom of speech and religion This memoir of her struggle to be true to herself regardless of the consequences also offers penetrating insights into Iranian society the Islamic regime U S Iran relations and the historic changes sweeping Iran today Between Two Worlds is a timeless universal story of the trials and triumphs of the human spirit as well as a dramatic illuminating account of the ongoing battle for freedom in Iran

The Literature of the Iranian Diaspora Sanaz Fotouhi, 2015-04-03 The 1979 Revolution in Iran caused the migration of millions of Iranians many of whom wrote and are still writing of their experiences Formed at the junctions of Iranian culture English language and Western cultures this body of work has not only formed a unique literary space offering an insightful reflection of Iranian diasporic experiences and its shifting nature but it has also been making a unique and understudied contribution to World Literatures in English as significant as Indian African and Asian writing in English Sanaz Fotouhi here traces the origins of the emerging body of diasporic Iranian literature in English and uses these origins to examine the socio political position and historical context from which they have emerged Fotouhi brings together introduces and analyses for the first time a significant range of diasporic Iranian writers alongside each other and alongside other diasporic literatures in English While situating this body of work through existing theories such as postcolonialism Fotouhi sheds new light on the role of Iranian literature and culture in Western literature by showing that these writings distinctively reflect experiences unique to the Iranian diaspora Analysing the relationship between Iranians and their new surroundings by drawing on theories of migration narration and identity Fotouhi examines how the literature borne out of the Iranian diaspora reconstructs maintains and negotiates their Individual and communal identities and reflects today's socio political realities This book will be vital for researchers of Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West as well as those interested in the cultural history of the Middle East Captive in Iran Maryam

Rostampour, Marziyeh Amirizadeh, 2013 Converts from Muslim Rostampour and Amirizadeh were arrested in Tehran for promoting Christianity a capital crime in Iran When denying God would have meant freedom they brought God's light into one of the world's darkest places giving hope to those who had lost everything and showing love to those in despair An

Iranian and American Veteran Exchange Stories and Discuss Inner Peace Mohammad Khodayarifard, James

McClenon, 2021-07-07 This book brings together an Iranian Iran Iraq War veteran and an American Vietnam War veteran both mental health professionals to exchange war stories and discuss self help strategies for post traumatic stress disorder

PTSD They engage in forms of self help therapy for treating PTSD Each chapter contains an exchange of stories a discussion of therapy in progress and self help assignments for readers Unthinkable Kenneth Pollack,2014-09-30 Examines Iran s current nuclear potential while charting America s future course of action recounting the prolonged clash between both nations to outline options for American policymakers Iran's Ministry of Intelligence Steven R. Ward,2024 Steven R Ward has written an introduction to Iran s shadowy Ministry of Intelligence MOIS MOIS is Iran s primary intelligence agency and focuses on tracking and countering domestic dissent and foreign inspired sedition Its organizational ethos emphasizes combating foreign influence and covert action to protect national identity and solidarity adding the cultural realm to its intelligence mission The ministry s checkered record of effective intelligence operations includes a history of assassinations and human rights abuses Iran established the MOIS under the executive branch for accountability to the law and subordination to its system of elected and unelected rulers MOIS missions overlap with other parts of Iran s expansive security apparatus especially the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps IRGC which often overshadows the Ministry of Intelligence Nonetheless the ministry maintains a leading role in coordinating the multiple security organizations activities and helps balance the system by serving as a check on IRGC power This accessible book is intended for students of intelligence studies national security practitioners and general readers Gender, Sexuality and Identities of the Borderlands Suzanne Clisby,2020-05-26 Drawing on border thinking postcolonial and transnational feminisms and queer theory Gender Sexuality and Identities of the Borderlands brings an intersectional feminist and queer lens to understandings of borderlands liminality and lives lived at the margins of socio cultural and sexual normativities Bringing together new and contemporary interdisciplinary research from across diverse global contexts this collection explores the lived experiences of what Gloria Anzald a might have called threshold people people who live among and in between different worlds While it is often challenging difficult and even dangerous inhabiting marginal spaces living at the borders of socio cultural religious sexual ethnic or gendered norms can create possibilities for developing unique ways of seeing and understanding the worlds within which we live This collection casts a spotlight on the margins those queer spaces in literary cinematic and cultural borderlands postcolonial and transnational feminist perspectives on movement and migration and critical analyses of liminal lives within and between socio cultural borders Each chapter within this unique book brings a critical insight into diverse global human experiences in the 21st Century Women Write Iran Nima Naghibi,2016-05-01 Women Write Iran is the first full length study on life narratives by Iranian women in the diaspora Nima Naghibi investigates auto biographical narratives across genres including memoirs documentary films prison testimonials and graphic novels and finds that they are tied together by the experience of the 1979 Iranian revolution as a traumatic event and by a powerful nostalgia for an idealized past Naghibi is particularly interested in writing as both an expression of memory and an assertion of human rights She discovers that writing life narratives contributes to the larger enterprise of righting historical injustices By drawing on the empathy of the reader spectator witness Naghibi contends life narratives offer the possibilities of connecting to others and responding with an increased commitment to social justice The book opens with an examination of how the widely circulated video footage of the death of Neda Agha Soltan on the streets of Tehran in June 2009 triggered the articulation of life narratives by diasporic Iranians It concludes with a discussion of the prominent place of the 1979 revolution in these narratives Throughout the focus is on works that have become popular in the West such as Marjane Satrapi's best selling graphic novel Persepolis Naghibi addresses the significant questions raised by these works How do we engage with human rights and social justice as readers in the West How do these narratives draw our attention and elicit our empathic reactions And what is our responsibility as witnesses to trauma atrocity and human suffering A Social History of Iranian Cinema, Volume 4 Hamid Naficy, 2011 In the fourth and final volume of A History of Iranian Cinema Hamid Naficy looks at the extraordinary efflorescence in Iranian film and other visual media since the Islamic Revolution A Social History of Iranian Cinema, Volume 3 Hamid Naficy, 2011 Covering the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first and addressing documentaries popular genres and art films this four volume set explains Iran's peculiar cinematic production modes as well as the role of cinema and media in shaping modernity and a modern national identity in Iran Page 4 of cover
