Anzac Memories Living With The Legend:

Anzac Memories Alistair Thomson, 1994 Anzac Memories was first published to acclaim in 1994 OUP and has achieved international renown for its pioneering contribution to the study of war memory and mythology Michael McKernan wrote that the book gave as good a picture of the impact of the Great War on individuals and Australia as we are likely to get in this generation and Michael Roper concluded that an immense achievement of this book is that it so clearly illuminates the historical processes that left men like my grandfather forever struggling to fashion myths which they could live by In this new edition Alistair Thomson explores how the Anzac legend has transformed over the past quarter century how a post memory of the Great War creates new challenges and opportunities for making sense of the national past and how veterans war memories can still challenge and complicate national mythologies He returns to a family war history that he could not write about twenty years ago because of the stigma of war and mental illness and he uses newly released Repatriation files to question his own earlier account of veterans post war lives and memories and to think afresh about war and memory

ANZAC MEMORIES ALISTAIR. THOMSON, 2016 ANZAC Memories: Living with the Legend, First Edition
Alistair Thomson, Changing Ways of Death in Twentieth-century Australia Patricia Jalland, 2006 The first general history of death and bereavement in twentieth century Australia Starts with the culture of death denial from 1920 to 1970 and discusses increased openness about death since the 1980s After the War Leigh S. L. Straw, 2017 In Collie in 1929 a murder suicide took place The killer was identified as Andrew Straw Dressed in war uniform and a slouch hat a hauntingly familiar face stared out at me from the front page of Truth Andrew Straw bore a striking resemblance to my husband I had unearthed an unexpected family story Of the 330 000 Australian men who enlisted and served in World War I close to 60 000 never returned home As much as it is important to commemorate the war dead it is also imperative that we remember the survivors as they moved into peacetime Of the 32 000 Western Australian men who enlisted 23 700 returned from the war These men tried to create a semblance of a civilian life following the traumas of war War receded from immediate view as these men readjusted to civilian life but its impacts endured Many returned with disabilities mental health problems and a lowered sense of self worth that led some to take their own lives This book charts the emergence of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD as a diagnosable condition in an Australian context In this deeply personal account historian and writer Leigh Straw seeks a better understanding of what soldiers experienced once the fighting stopped After the War uses the personal struggles of soldiers and their families to increase public understanding of the legacies of World War I in Western Australia and across the nation The scars of war mental and physical can be lifelong for soldiers who serve their country This is a story of surviving life after war Subject Military History History PTSD Psychology WWI Australian Studies Handbook of Oral History Thomas L. Charlton, Lois E. Myers, Rebecca Sharpless, 2008-03-13 In recent decades oral history has matured into an established field of critical importance to historians and social scientists alike Handbook of Oral History captures the current state of the art identifies major strands of intellectual development and predicts key direct

Thinking about Oral History Thomas L. Charlton, Lois E. Myers, Rebecca Sharpless, 2007-10-15 A companion to History of Oral History Thinking about Oral History presents parts III and IV of Handbook of Oral History an essential resource for scholars and students Guided by Charlton Myers and Sharpless the prominent authors capture the current state of the art in oral history and predict key directions for future growth in theory and application

History of Oral History Leslie Roy Ballard, 2007-04-09 Gathered here are parts I and II of the Handbook of Oral History which set the benchmark for knowledge of the field The eminent contributors discuss the history and methodologies of a field that once was the domain of history scholars who were responding to trends within the academy but which has increasingly become democratized and widely used outside the realm of historical research This handbook will be both a traveling guide and essential touchstone for anyone fascinated by this dynamic and expanding discipline

The Great War Ian F. W. Beckett, 2014-01-14 The course of events of the Great War has been told many times spurred by an endless desire to understand the war to end all wars However this book moves beyond military narrative to offer a much fuller analysis of the conflict's strategic political economic social and cultural impact Starting with the context and origins of the war including assassination misunderstanding and differing national war aims it then covers the treacherous course of the conflict and its social consequences for both soldiers and civilians for science and technology for national politics and for pan European revolution The war left a long term legacy for victors and vanquished alike It created new frontiers changed the balance of power and influenced the arts national memory and political thought The reach of this account is global showing how a conflict among European powers came to involve their colonial empires and embraced Japan China the Ottoman Empire Latin America and the United States

The Enemy in Contemporary Film Martin Löschnigg, Marzena Sokołowska-Paryż, 2018-08-21 Culture and conflict inevitably go hand in hand The very idea of culture is marked by the notion of difference and by the creative fraught interaction between conflicting concepts and values The same can be said of all key ideas in the study of culture such as identity and diversity memory and trauma the translation of cultures and globalization dislocation and emplacement mediation and exclusion This series publishes theoretically informed original scholarship from the fields of literary and cultural studies as well as media visual and film studies It fosters an interdisciplinary dialogue on the multiple ways in which conflict supports and constrains the production of meaning on how conflict is represented how it relates to the past and projects the present and how it frames scholarship within the humanities Editors Isabel Capeloa Gil Catholic University of Portugal Lisbon Portugal Paulo de Medeiros University of Warwick UK Catherine Nesci University of California Santa Barbara USA Editorial Board Arjun Appadurai New York University Claudia Benthien Universität Hamburg Elisabeth Bronfen Universität Zürich Bishnupriya Ghosh University of California Santa Barbara Joyce Goggin Universiteit van Amsterdam Lawrence Grossberg University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Andreas Huyssen Columbia University Ansgar Nünning Universität Gießen Naomi Segal
