Apostolic Faith Mission In Zimbabwe Hymn:

Multiplying in the Spirit Ezra Chitando, Masiwa Ragies Gunda, Joachim Kügler, 2014-10-30      The Self-understanding of African Instituted Churches Phillip Denhe Mazambara, 1999      Pentecostalism in Malawi Ulf Strohhahn, 2005

Pentecostalism in Malawi aims to fill a gap in the historiography of Pentecostalism in Malawi by approaching it from historical and theological perspectives. Mostly constructed from oral sources, local histories and interviews conducted in Malawi, South Africa, Zimbabwe and Germany, the book traces the history of the apostolic faith mission from its machona migrant labour beginnings through the spread of the missionaries to its position on the social and religious landscape in the postcolonial period. The work concludes with some reflections on why Pentecostalism has been so successful in Africa.

Religion and COVID-19 Vaccination in Zimbabwe Tenson Muyambo, Fortune Sibanda, Ezra Chitando, 2023-10-17. This book analyses the role of religion during the COVID 19 pandemic and vaccination rollout in Zimbabwe. Zimbabwe was listed by the World Health Organization (WHO) as one of thirteen African countries to have fully vaccinated more than 10% of its population against COVID 19 by the end of September 2021, but the country fell far short of the government's own target for achieving 60% inoculation by December 2020. This book analyses whether religion played a role in explaining why the government's pro vaccine stance did not translate into high vaccination rates. Drawing upon various religions including African indigenous religions, Christianity and Islam, the book considers how faith actors demonstrated vaccine acceptance, resistance or hesitancy. Zimbabwe offers a particularly interesting and varied case for analysis, and the original research on display here will be an important contribution to wider debates on religion and COVID 19. This book will be useful to academics, researchers and students studying religious studies, sociology, health and well-being, religion and development.

Dreams in the African Church Nelson Osamu Hayashida, 2023-09-20. Currents of Encounter invites scholarly contributions that utilize interreligious, intercultural, comparative, postcolonial and other contemporary critical interdisciplinary approaches from across all religious traditions to address topical questions on the challenges and opportunities arising from intercultural, interreligious engagements or the intersections of cultures and religions. Studies dealing explicitly with the dynamics of the intersection of religious and cultural traditions are increasing every year, and scholars have become aware of the complexity and diversity of interreligious and intercultural relations. Recent literature offers a broad panoply of theoretical approaches from theologies of religions to comparative theologies, from discourse analysis to a postcolonial critique focusing on issues of power, from feminist readings asking about the specific role of women in interreligious dialogue to interreligious hermeneutics exploring how meaning may travel across cultural and religious traditions. Currents of Encounter welcomes this variety of works in these disciplines and from interdisciplinary perspectives, aiming thus to contribute to a better understanding of the complexities of interreligious and intercultural themes. The board welcomes both monographs and edited volumes. Possible domains: interreligious studies, intercultural theology and philosophy.

Christianity in Eurafrica Steven Pass,2016-10-01

Christianity in Eurafrica is an impressive book meticulously researched and well written by a professional scholar The first chapter includes some valuable historiographical guidelines for writing and understanding the History of the Church In its first part the book traces the history of the Church in the Middle East and Europe explaining the roots of theological diversity to this day In the second part the author narrates how the Faith moved south took root in African soil and grew independently Many pictures and illustrations serve to further enliven the account Steven Paas taught Theology in Malawi for many years He writes from a deep knowledge of and love for the Lord s Church especially in Africa and Europe This textbook on the history of Christianity in two continents fits with the curricula of institutions of theological training in Africa and the West The content is especially aimed at students who prepare for the ministry and for Christian education The book is however also invaluable for all scholars of the History of Christianity SCM Core Text: Pentecostalism William K.

Kay,2013-01-26 The Pentecostal and charismatic movements showed astonishing growth in the twentieth century so as to arrive at a total that is said to include at least 400 million people worldwide The academic study of the Pentecostal and charismatic movement has been gaining momentum in the last few years both as an element within contemporary religious studies and as a strand within the subject area of church history going back to the early church This student friendly text is essential reading for students of Theology and Religious Studies taking second or third year modules in Pentecostal studies It is also of great relevance to students of sociology of religion as well as cultural and historical studies of religion and religious movements In addition to a comprehensive and accessible introduction to the subject it offers useful resources such as suggestions for further reading questions for reflection and a glossary of technical terms Routledge Companion to Christianity in Africa Elias Kifon Bongmba,2015-12-22 The Routledge Companion to Christianity in Africa offers a multi disciplinary analysis of the Christian tradition across the African continent and throughout a long historical span The volume offers historical and thematic essays tracing the introduction of Christianity in Africa as well as its growth developments and effects including the lived experience of African Christians Individual chapters address the themes of Christianity and gender the development of African initiated churches the growth of Pentecostalism and the influence of Christianity on issues of sexuality music and public health This comprehensive volume will serve as a valuable overview and reference work for students and researchers worldwide African Pentecostalism Ogbu Kalu,2008-03-06 In this book Ogbu Kalu provides an overview of Pentecostalism in Africa He shows the amazing diversity of the faith which flourishes in many different forms in diverse local contexts and demonstrates that African Pentecostalism is distinctly African in character not imported from the West Liturgy in Migration Teresa Berger,2012 Liturgy migrates That is liturgical practices forms and materials have migrated and continue to migrate across geographic ethnic ecclesial and chronological boundaries Liturgy in Migration offers the contributions of scholars who took part in the Yale Institute of Sacred Music s 2011 international liturgy conference on this topic. Presenters explored the nature of liturgical migrations and flows, their patterns, directions, and characteristics. Such migrations are always wrapped in their social and cultural contexts. With this in mind, these essays recalibrate for the twenty-first century older work on liturgical inculturation. They allow readers to better understand contemporary liturgical flows in the light of important and fascinating migrations of the past.
