experiences and responses cast new light on a landscape that is close to yet remote from the sites typically visited by modern travellers to Italy. Havely draws these earlier travellers' stories from a wide range of published and unpublished sources such as letters, journals, memoirs, poems and interviews. Together they illustrate several significant themes: the histories of mountain passes, remote lakes and ancient sanctuaries; perceptions of the mountains; the social and religious culture of the Northern Apennines; the preoccupations of literary tourism; the impact of campaigns and conflict during World War Two and the effects of depopulation and deforestation. The Apennine region features in its full literary, historical and cultural richness. Included are twenty-six illustrations with maps for the whole route and for the sections covered by each of the book's seven chapters.
