Blue Moon Restaurant:

Classic Restaurants of Montgomery Karren Pell, Carole King, 2020-08-17 Montgomery has a fun and fascinating assortment of restaurants dating back more than two hundred years. Some landmark dining establishments like Fleming's are gone but others like Chris Hot Dogs are still serving their signature dishes. Such notable figures as Hank Williams, Zelda and Scott Fitzgerald, Elvis, Bobby Kennedy and Martin Luther King Jr. have all enjoyed delicious meals in Montgomery. Traditional favorites such as Pop's Shake, Ice the Parkmore's Chicken in a Basket and the Elite's Trout Almondine now take their place alongside new offerings like Chef Eric Rivera's Blended Burger. Local authors Karren Pell and Carole King reveal the culinary treats and the colorful personalities behind the best restaurants in the city.

York Georg R. Sheets, 2015 York experienced great changes following World War II. People began moving from the city to the suburbs and many department stores like Bear's, Wiest's, Jack's and Gregory's closed. Long-standing companies such as AMF and York Air Conditioning were sold or moved while banks, industries and businesses merged. The York County Shopping Center opened on the East End, attracting customers who had formerly shopped downtown. WSBA-TV went on the air in 1952, starting a new era in communication and a business empire that still has a strong presence today. The band Live grew from a group of local high school students to well-known musicians that graced the cover of Rolling Stone. Jeff Koons became one of the most celebrated artists in the world. Kim Bracey became the first African American mayor and York businessman Tom Wolf became governor. York continues to celebrate its rich heritage as the Factory Capital of the World.
