Top Ten Fictional Narratives in Early Modern Europe Rita Schlusemann, Helwi Blom, Anna Katharina Richter, Krystyna Wierzbicka-Trwoga, 2023-10-24 This volume examines the ten most popular fictional narratives in early modern Europe between 1470 and 1800. Each of these narratives was marketed in numerous European languages and circulated throughout several centuries. Combining literary studies and book history, this work offers for the first time a transnational perspective on a selected text corpus of this genre. It explores the spatio-temporal transmission of the texts in different languages and the materiality of the editions the narratives were bought, sold, read, translated and adapted across European borders from the south of Spain to Iceland and from Great Britain to Poland. Thus the study analyses the multifaceted processes of cultural circulation, translation and adaptation of the texts. In their diverse forms of mediality such as romance, drama, ballad and penny prints, they also make a significant contribution to a European identity in the early modern period. The narrative texts examined here include Apollonius Septem sapientum, Amadis de Gaula, Fortunatus Pierre de Provence et la belle Maguelonne, Melusine, Griseldis, Aesopus, Life and Fables, Reynaert de vos and Till Ulenspiegel. Alle de vyf boeken der Psalmen, van David, Asaph en andere Salomon van Til, 1724 The Greatest Films Never Seen Claudy Op den Kamp, 2025-10-01 Orphan works or artworks for which no copyright holder is traceable pose a growing problem for museums, archives and other heritage institutions. As they come under more and more pressure to digitize and share their archives, they are often hampered by the uncertain rights status of items in their collections. The Greatest Films Never Seen, The Film Archive and the Copyright Smokescreen uses the prism of copyright to reconsider human agency and the politics of the archive and asks what the practical implications are for educational institutions, the creative industries and the general public. The Riches of Intercultural Communication, 2022-11-14 How do you react to an intercultural situation that you do not understand? There are four options: You wait until it's over, You adjust your behavior and do as the natives do, You blame the other as strange and stupid, Or you start to wonder by thinking about yourself and the other's. This last option is called a Rich Point. This book provides an overview of research into intercultural communication. It is not a handbook but offers nine studies that illustrate the reflection process from different scholarly perspectives. The approaches in this volume are the interaction approach, contrastive approach and cultural representational approach. Volume 2 offers nine additional chapters exemplifying the multilingualism approach and transfer approach, including research into intercultural competences. Together the chapters illustrate the essence of the essentialism and non-essentialism debate regarding diversity and inclusion. Have you ever found yourself in an intercultural situation you did not understand? How did you react? Did you wonder if you could have reacted differently? What have you learnt that could support you in similar future occasions?
