Taking Hold of the Real Barry Harvey, 2015-10-23 Dietrich Bonhoeffer writes in one of his last prison letters that he had come to know and understand more and more the profound this worldliness of Christianity In Taking Hold of the Real Barry Harvey engages in constructive conversation with Bonhoeffer contending that the shallow and banal this worldliness of modern society is ordered to a significant degree around the social technologies of religion culture and race These mechanisms displace human beings from their traditional connections with particular locales and relocate them in their proper places as determined by the nation state and capitalist markets Christians are called to participate in the profound this worldliness that breaks into the world in the apocalyptic action of Jesus Christ a form of life that requires discipline and an understanding of death and resurrection The church is a sacrament of this new humanity performing for all to hear the polyphony of life that was prefigured in the Old Testament and now is realized in Christ Unable to find a faithful form of this worldliness in wartime Germany Bonhoeffer joined the conspiracy against Hitler a decision aptly contrasted with a small French church that prepared by its life together over many generations saved thousands of Jewish lives Life Together Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 1978-10-25 After his martyrdom at the hands of the Gestapo in 1945 Dietrich Bonhoeffer continued his witness in the hearts of Christians around the world His Letters and Papers from Prison became a prized testimony to Christian faith and courage read by thousands Now in Life Together we have Pastor Bonhoeffer's experience of Christian community This story of a unique fellowship in an underground seminary during the Nazi years reads like one of Paul's letters It gives practical advice on how life together in Christ can be sustained in families and groups The role of personal prayer worship in common everyday work and Christian service is treated in simple almost biblical words Life Together is bread for all who are hungry for the real life of Christian fellowship Mornings with Bonhoeffer Donald K. McKim, 2018-10-02 No priest no theologian stood at the cradle of Bethlehem And yet all Christian theology finds its beginnings in the miracle of miracles that God became human These stirring words are just a sample of the wisdom found in this collection of 100 devotions that guide and inspire us Mornings with Bonhoeffer provides an acute understanding of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theological perspectives helping us to reflect on what his thoughts can mean for faith and the Christian experience Short excerpts from Bonhoeffer's letters and passages from his sermons paired with the daily devotions offer timeless and moving reminders of God's love for humanity speaking to the head and heart of theological understanding and personal faith Dr Donald K McKim brings Bonhoeffer to life in this beautiful devotional that provides understanding of often misunderstood multifaceted writings as well as an inside look at the imperfect man behind the saintly image The result is a heartrending portrait that provides Bonhoeffer's true insights as well as insight into the faith that sustained and redeemed him
