Apec As An Institution Multilateral Governance In The Asia Pacific:

APEC as an Institution Richard E Feinberg, 2003 Assesses the strengths and weaknesses of APEC's soft institutionalism and its capstone policy report identifies reforms that would close the credibility gap between APEC's promises and accomplishments Leading scholars at APEC Study Centres investigate APEC's core agenda and delve into the inner workings of bureaucracy

Reshaping the Asia Pacific Economic Order Christopher Findlay, Hadi Soesastro, 2004-08-02 This discussion directs attention to the fact that economic cooperation and security are complementary

The Asia-Pacific, Regionalism and the Global System Christopher M. Dent, Jörn Dosch, 2012-01-01 Dent and Dosch have put together a superb volume that explores new dimensions of the world events for the past five decades and take decrypting the processes of regionalism global system and world society to a new height The contributors have enhanced our understanding of how regionalism has been changing when a world society will be created and why East Asia's centrality matters in this unfolding drama Policymakers academics and mass media opinion makers will find the book useful provocative and refreshing Eul Soo Pang Institute of Southeast Asian Studies Singapore Ever since the Asia Pacific transformed from an institutional desert into one of the most networked areas in the world questions of the region's future and the future of the global system have become closely intertwined This volume explores the key issues of regional co operation economic and political integration security relations and international affairs within and across the Asia Pacific The expert contributors shed critical light on how significant developments are impacting on the global system In particular they consider emerging forms of global governance and how the Asia Pacific as a region individual countries such as China Japan South Korea and the US and regional organisations and forums like APEC are shaping the world Uniquely the discussion is not limited to East Asia but also takes Latin America prominently into the equation This timely book will prove to be a stimulating read for academics students researchers and policymakers with an interest in Asian studies development and agriculture economics international studies

Apec and the Rise of China Lok-sang Ho, John Wong, 2011 Annotation Intra regional trade has been rising rapidly especially after China's accession to the WTO in 2001 China's economy is expanding at a great rate and will soon surpass Japan to become the world's second largest economy This book is based on papers presented by scholars at a conference on APEC at 20 and the Rise of China

International Institutions and Economic Development in Asia Thanh Tri Vo, 2010-11-16 Covers the influence of international public goods and landmark developments and assesses how they have affected Asia's development through the Golden and Silver Ages of economic development It also considers the challenges for the continuation of a new Platinum Age of development driven by China and India

International Economic Law Won-mog Choi, 2015-09-10 This book assesses the past 20 years of development of international economic law in time for the WTO's 20th Anniversary and forecasts the future of international economic law This edited volume brings together experts in the Asia Pacific region from a range of backgrounds to provide perspectives on many issues that arise from the international economic law experience focusing on its legal significance and likely impact on multilateralism The past two decades have seen a significant proliferation of regional trade agreements and a lack of multilateral governance of finance around the world How to respond to these challenges and how to reform the WTO jurisprudence and process to co ordinate global and regional mechanisms have become compelling questions for large scale discussions and systemic analysis This book provides vital insights into just how to improve multilateral trading governance and to recalibrate international economic law in the twenty first century

Trade Regionalism in the Asia-Pacific Sanchita Basu Das, Masahiro Kawai, 2016-04-11 Asia has witnessed a proliferation of free trade agreements FTAs since the turn of the millennium The first regional agreement the ASEAN FTA was transformed into the ASEAN Economic Community at the end of 2015 In the meantime ASEAN forged five ASEAN 1 FTAs and began to negotiate a sixteen member Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership RCEP Agreement In parallel the U S led Trans Pacific Partnership TPP supporting U S foreign policy of Pivot to Asia was broadly agreed in October 2015 The RCEP and the TPP are accompanied by other mega regional integration processes developing elsewhere in the world including the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership for the European Union and the United States and the Pacific Alliance among four Latin American member states Meanwhile APEC is also striving to meet its Bogor Goal targets and create a Free Trade Area of the Asia Pacific Each of these mega regionals aims to achieve greater trade and investment liberalization and facilitation and more harmonized trade and investment rules so that all member economies can participate in the global value chain of production Instead of undermining these regional exercises can be building blocks for a more liberal global trading system supported by the World Trade Organization This book ruminates on these regional agreements their economic and strategic rationales and challenges during negotiations and afterwards The book brings together eminent scholars and experts to deepen our understanding of the complex nature of the mega regional trade agreements and their implications It is useful both for the academic and research community and for policymakers who focus on trade and economic cooperation issues

The Future of APEC and Regionalism in Asia Pacific Mark Borthwick, 2005

Political Economy of East Asian Economic Integration Fusanori Iwasaki, Keita Oikawa, Shujiro Urata, 2025-02-25 This book studies the influence of the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership RCEP on the East Asia region and the rest of the world from an international relations perspective Analysing the history and negotiation process of RCEP through a collection of written interviews from negotiators involved in the RCEP this book helps readers understand the origins proceedings and characteristics of mega regional trade integration Individual case studies analyse the RCEP negotiations from the viewpoint of various states or economic blocs such as ASEAN Australia China Japan the European Union EU and the United States Several chapters also illustrate the dynamism of the regional architecture in East Asia concerning other regional movements including the Trans Pacific Partnership TPP Comprehensive and Progressive TPP CPTPP Belt and Road Initiative and the newly launched Indo Pacific Economic Framework IPEF In sum the chapters illustrate how RCEP member
