

CLASSICI DELLE RELIGIONI

APOCRIFI DELL'ANTICO TESTAMENTO

a cura di Paolo Sacchi

E si presero, per loro, le mogli e ognuno se ne scelse una e cominciarono a recarsi da loro. E si unirono con loro e insegnarono ad esse l'arte di coltivare e di cucinare e mostrarono loro il taglio di piante e radici. Ed esse rimasero incinte e generarono giganti la cui statura, per ognuno, era di tremila cubiti. Costoro mangiarono tutto il frutto della terra degli uomini fino a non poterli, gli uomini, più sostentare. E i giganti si voltarono contro di loro per mangiare gli uomini. E cominciarono a peccare contro gli uccelli, gli animali, i rettili, i pesci e a mangiarsene, fra loro, la loro carne e a berne il sangue. La terra, allora, accusò gli iniqui.

Apocrifi Dell Antico Testamento Volume 1:

al-Makīn Ġirġis Ibn al-‘Amīd: Universal History Martino Diez, 2023-11-20 When the 13th century Coptic official al Mak n Ibn al Am d was thrown into prison by Sultan Baybars he set out to compile a summary of Biblical Graeco Roman and Islamic history for his own consolation His work which drew from a vast array of sources enjoyed enduring success among various readerships Oriental Christians in Arabic speaking communities but also in Ethiopia Mamluk historians including Ibn ald n and al Maqr z and early modern Europe A major instance of Christian Muslim interaction in the pre modern era Ibn al Am d s chronography is still unpublished in its pre Islamic part This volume edits analyzes and translates the section from Adam to the Achaemenids Of Courtiers and Kings Tawny L. Holm, 2013-11-14 Holm s book is an innovative approach to the biblical Book of Daniel It places Daniel against the background of story collections an ancient genre that began in Egypt in the mid second millennium B C E This work focuses on Daniel 6 4 and provides detailed comparisons with specific bodies of story collections and other related material from the Ancient Near East In this regard special attention is given to Egyptian court tales a large corpus mostly neglected by previous biblical scholars Thus this book brings new evidence and fresh insights to the field of Daniel studies which in recent years has generated constant interest especially as it pertains to textual issues and literary matters Setting Daniel against an explicit definition of the story collection genre redefines a vast array of questions concerning textual criticism compositional history and the overall nature of the book For instance the divergent texts of the narrative parts of Daniel the Masoretic text and the Greek editions in Theodotion and the Septuagint now need to be described in part as variant editions or tellings of a common core material rather than as translations of older written texts with clearly traceable genealogies When Daniel is studied in the context of story collections and kindred compositions from the Ancient Near Eastern and neighboring literatures new light is shed on the literary traditions and processes from which the Daniel stories arose There are a greater number of court tales and cycles than previously recognized as in the case of Qumran but also the Egypt Demotic corpus The detailed discussion of all these materials allows us to appreciate the Book of Daniel in a much wider literary milieu and it furthers our understanding of the history of its composition and early transmission The Cambridge History of Judaism: Volume 2, The Hellenistic Age W. D. Davies, Louis Finkelstein, William Horbury, John Sturdy, Steven T. Katz, Mitchell B. Hart, Tony Michels, Jonathan Karp, Adam Sutcliffe, 1984 Vol 4 covers the late Roman period to the rise of Islam Focuses especially on the growth and development of rabbinic Judaism and of the major classical rabbinic sources such as the Mishnah Jerusalem Talmud Babylonian Talmud and various Midrashic collections

Prophets of Old and The Day of the End Tigchelaar, 2021-12-06 Prophets of Old and The Day of the End argues for a historical and literary approach to apocalyptic It tackles the problem of the origins of early Jewish apocalyptic by describing the correspondences and differences between some so called protoapocalyptic and apocalyptic texts The bulk of the book consists of exegetical studies of parts of Zechariah Deuterozechariah and the Enochic Book of Watchers Most of these studies offer new interpretations of the examined texts The framework of the book presents fresh perspectives on apocalyptic Some parts are more important to the scholar of post exilic prophecy and other parts to the student of the intertestamental literature Yet the overall approach and the conclusions bearing on the phenomenon of apocalyptic are of interest to scholars of both fields

The Book of Daniel and the Apocryphal Daniel Literature Lorenzo DiTommaso, 2005-05-01 This volume illuminates the full extent of the corpus of ancient and mediaeval apocryphal Daniel literature It is the first study to examine the Daniel legenda the apocryphal apocalypses and the prognostica as discrete categories of texts and to evaluate their generic relationship to the biblical Book of Daniel Special emphases include the identification of the texts and their manuscript evidence as well as the study of late antique and early mediaeval apocalyptic literature attributed to Daniel This volume will be of particular interest to biblical scholars and to those who specialise in biblical apocrypha and pseudepigrapha

Jewish Apocalyptic and Its History Paolo Sacchi, 1996-12-01 This translation of L'apocalittica giudaica e la sua storia makes Professor Sacchi's expertise on Jewish apocalyptic available to a wider English reading audience Sacchi argues for a more precise literary and historical definition of apocalyptic focusing on the material of 1 Enoch L'Apocalypse des animaux (1 Hen 85-90): une propagande militaire? Daniel Assefa, 2007-09-30 For the majority of scholars the Animal Apocalypse is a militant text a piece of pro Maccabean propaganda This text however develops theological reflections that are distinctly different from a justification of an armed struggle Its themes are even incompatible with the Maccabean movement It is impossible to condemn the Second Temple and at the same time mobilise people for a fight in order to purify that very Temple After dealing with text critical issues this work challenges the thesis that the text is military propaganda through the use of narrative and historical approaches The analyses besides proposing a new way of studying an apocalypse spell out the peculiarity and the significance of the theology of the Animal Apocalypse in connection with the biblical history of Israel and the theology of the Qumran community

The Book of Daniel, Volume 2 Composition and Reception John J. Collins, Peter W. Flint, 2014-09-03 In this collection of new essays more than thirty leading scholars from Europe North America and Israel examine the Composition and Reception of Daniel in eight sections Review of Scholarship and Context J J Collins M Knibb Near Eastern Milieu K van der Toorn S Paul J Walton Interpretation of Specific Passages D Dimant R Kratz A Lacocque E Haag J W van Henten Social Setting R Albertz S Beyerle L Grabbe P Davies D Smith Christopher Literary Context including Qumran J W Wesselius G Boccaccini P W Flint L Stuckenbruck E Eshel J Hobbins Reception in Judaism and Christianity K Koch C Rowland U Glemer C A Evans J D G Dunn M Henze Textual History E Ulrich A A Di Lella K Jenner and Theology of Daniel J Goldingay J Barton J Lust This is the second volume to appear following Writing and Reading the Scroll of Isaiah Studies of an Interpretative Tradition in the collection The Formation and Interpretation of Old Testament Literature part of the series Supplements to Vetus Testamentum Further volumes in preparation on the composition and reception of Old Testament books include Genesis Leviticus Kings Psalms and Proverbs

The History of the Jewish People in the Age of Jesus Christ: Volume 3.i Emil Schürer, Geza Vermes, Fergus Millar, 2014-01-30 Emil Schürer's Geschichte des jüdischen Volkes im Zeitalter Jesu Christi originally published in German between 1874 and 1909 and in English between 1885 and 1891 is a critical presentation of Jewish history institutions and literature from 175 B C to A D 135 It has rendered invaluable services to scholars for nearly a century The present work offers a fresh translation and a revision of the entire subject matter The bibliographies have been rejuvenated and supplemented the sources are presented according to the latest scholarly editions and all the new archaeological epigraphical numismatic and literary evidence including the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Bar Kokhba documents has been introduced into the survey Account has also been taken of the progress in historical research both in the classical and Jewish fields This work reminds students of the profound debt owed to nineteenth century learning setting it within a wider framework of contemporary knowledge and provides a foundation on which future historians of Judaism in the age of Jesus may build

Angelomorphic Christology Gieschen, 2018-07-17 This study demonstrates that angel and angel related traditions especially those growing from the so called Angel of the Lord in the Hebrew Bible had a significant impact on the origins and early development of Christology to the point that an Angelomorphic Christology is discernable in several first century texts Significant effort is given to tracing the antecedents of this Christology in the angels and divine hypostases of the Hebrew Bible and Second Temple Jewish literature The primary content of this volume is the presentation of pre 150 CE textual evidence of Angelomorphic Christology This religio historical study does not spawn a new Christology among the many scholarly Christologies already extant Instead it shows the interrelationship of various Christological trajectories and their adaptation from Jewish angelomorphic traditions
