Apothecary Melchior and the Ghost of Rataskaevu Street Indrek Hargla, 2016-10-01 Tallinn 1419 What links the Keeper of the Tower a prostitute and a Flemish painter to a haunted house on Rataskaevu Street. All three claim to have seen a ghost near the house and each is found dead soon afterwards. Melchior Wakenstede apothecary and assistant bailiff is charged with unearthing the truth. With a cultivated sense for justice Melchior investigates the deaths and attempts to find out whether as the denizens of medieval Tallinn believe ghosts can reap their revenge upon the living. When a powerful merchant dies Melchior perceives a corporeal connection between this and the other deaths. As Melchior becomes embroiled in the conflicts and rivalries between religious orders merchant guilds and Teutonic Knights all vying with one another for control of the town what he discovers is more incredible and more terrible than any ghost Beyond Cadfael Lucy C. Barnhouse, Winston Black, 2023-06-01

Medievalism and medieval medicine are vibrant subfields of medieval studies enjoying sustained scholarly attention and popularity among undergraduates Popular perceptions of medieval medicine however remain understudied This book aims to fill that lacuna by providing a multifaceted study of medical medievalism defined as modern representations of medieval medicine intended for popular audiences The volume takes as its starting point the fictional medieval detective Brother Cadfael whose observations on bodies herbs and death have shaped many popular conceptions of medieval medicine in the Anglophone world The ten contributing authors move beyond Cadfael by exploring global medical medievalisms in a range of genres and cultural contexts Beyond Cadfael is organized into three sections the first of which engages with how disease injury and the sick are imagined in fictitious medieval worlds The second on doctors at work looks at medieval medical practice in novels films and television and public commemorative practice These essays examine how practitioners are represented and imagined in medieval and pseudo medieval worlds The third section discusses medicine designed for and practiced by women in the Middle Ages and today with a focus on East Asian medical traditions These essays are guided by the recognition that medieval medical practices are often in dialogue with contemporary medical practices that fall outside the norms of Western biomedicine Half a Pound of Tuppenny Rice David Coubrough, 2016-04-21
