Bold Plum With The Guerillas In Chinas War Against Japan:

Bold Plum Hsiao Li Lindsay, 2007 Hsiao Li Lindsay is a master storyteller and a historian's dream. She offers a day by day account of flight from Beijing in 1941 with Japanese troops in pursuit, years with the Communist guerrillas in North China, childbirth on the trail and refuge in Yen'an. Bold Plum shows us the communist movement in all its precarious local variation. Lindsay's keen eye and prodigious memory are a gift to us all. Gail Hersatter, Professor of History, University of California Santa Cruz, USA. This is a rare item. Bold Plum has all the virtues of a remarkably sharp authorial memory and a story line that ranges from tragically massacred peasant villages to living intimately with Mao Zedong, Zhou Enlai, Zhu De, Lin Biao and the whole gang. Jerome Silbergeld, Professor of Chinese Art and Film, Princeton University, USA. I just couldn't put Bold Plum down. Her courage and the choices she had to make are amazing. Fatima Jibrell, Goldman Environmental Prize 2002. Hsiao Li lives in Beijing, China.

The Secret War for China Panagiotis Dimitrakis, 2017-09-22 In 1927 Chiang Kai-shek, the head of China's military academy and leader of the Kuomintang (KMT), began the northern expeditions to bring China's northern territories back under the control of the state. It was during this period that the KMT purged communist activities, fractured the army and sparked the Chinese Civil War, which would rage for over twenty years. The communists, led by General Mao Tse-tung, were for much of the period forced underground and concentrated in the Chinese countryside. As the author argues, this resulted in China's war featuring unusually high levels of espionage and sabotage and increased the military importance of information gathering. Based on newly declassified material, Panagiotis Dimitrakis charts the double crossings, secret meetings and bloody assassinations which would come to define China's future. Uniquely, The Secret War for China gives equal weighting to the role of foreign actors, the role of British intelligence in unmasking Communist International Comintern agents in China, for example, and the allies' attempts to turn nationalist China against the Japanese. The Secret War for China also documents the clandestine confrontation between Mao and Chiang and the secret negotiations between Chiang and the Axis Powers whose forces he employed against the CCP once the Second World War was over. In his turn, Mao employed nationalist forces who had defected during the last three years of the civil war: about 105 out of 869 KMT generals defected to the CCP. This book is an urgent and necessary guide to the intricacies of the Chinese Civil War, a war which decisively shaped the modern Asian world.

East Wind Tom Buchanan, 2012-04-19 East Wind offers the first complete archive-based account of the relationship between China and the British Left from the rise of modern Chinese nationalism to the death of Mao Tse-tung. Beginning with the Hands Off China movement of the mid 1920s, Tom Buchanan charts the mobilisation of British opinion in defence of China against Japanese aggression, 1931-1945, and the role of the British Left in relations with the People's Republic of China after 1949. He shows how this relationship was placed under stress by the growing unpredictability of Communist China, above all by the Sino-Soviet dispute and the Cultural Revolution, which meant that by the 1960s China was actively supported only by a dwindling group of enthusiasts. The impact of the suppression of the student protests in Tiananmen Square June 1989 is addressed as an epilogue East Wind argues that the significance of the left's relationship with China has been unjustly overlooked There were many occasions such as the mid 1920s the late 1930s and the early 1950s when China demanded the full attention of the British left It also argues that there is nothing new in the current fascination with China's emergence as an economic power Throughout these decades the British left was aware of the immense unrealised potential of the Chinese economy and of how China's economic growth could transform the world In addition to analysing the role of the political parties and pressure groups of the left Buchanan sheds new light on the activities of many well known figures in support of China including intellectuals such as Bertrand Russell R H Tawney and Joseph Needham Many other interesting stories emerge concerning less well known figures which show the complexity of personal links between Britain and China during the twentieth century China's War Reporters Parks M. Coble, 2015-03-09 When Japan invaded China in 1937 Chinese journalists greeted the news with euphoria convinced their countrymen led by Chiang Kai shek would triumph Parks Coble shows that correspondents underplayed China's defeats for fear of undercutting morale and then saw their writings disappear and themselves denounced after the Communists came to power A Companion to Women's Military History, 2012-08-17 Military institutions have everywhere and always shaped the course of history but women's near universal participation in them has largely gone unnoticed This volume addresses the changing relationships between women and armed forces from antiquity to the present The eight chapters in Part I present broad scholarly reviews of the existing literature to provide a clear understanding of where we stand An extended picture essay documents visually women's military work since the sixteenth century The book's second part comprises eight exemplary articles more narrowly focused than the survey articles but illustrating some of their major themes Military history will benefit from acknowledging women's participation as will women's history from recognizing military institutions as major factors in molding women's lives Contributors include Jorit Wintjes Mary Elizabeth Ailes John A Lynn Barton C Hacker Kimberly Jensen Margaret Vining D Ann M Campbell Carol B Stevens Jan Noel Elizabeth Prelinger Donna Alvah Karen Hagemann Yehudit Kol Inbar Dorotea Gucciardo and Megan Howatt and Judith Hicks Stiehm China's Cold War Science Diplomacy Gordon Barrett, 2022-08-25 During the early decades of the Cold War the People's Republic of China remained outside much of mainstream international science Nevertheless Chinese scientists found alternative channels through which to communicate and interact with counterparts across the world beyond simple East West divides By examining the international activities of elite Chinese scientists Gordon Barrett demonstrates that these activities were deeply embedded in the Chinese Communist Party's wider efforts to win hearts and minds from the 1940s to the 1970s Using a wide range of archival material including declassified documents from China's Ministry of Foreign Affairs Archive Barrett provides fresh insights into the relationship between science and foreign relations in the People's Republic of China Red Friends John Sexton, 2023-02-21 The story of the friends and allies of the Chinese Revolution China's resistance to Imperial Japan was the
