Annual Review of the Sociology of Religion. Volume 11 (2020) Nanlai Cao, Giuseppe Giordan, Fenggang Yang, 2020-12-15 As China is being increasingly integrated into the global economy more and more Chinese people live transnational lives and practice religion globally So far scholarship of the relationship between religion and globalization in the Chinese religious field has primarily been set in the historical context of the encounter between Western Christian missionaries and local Chinese agents and little is known about a global Chinese religious field that is in the making The Annual Review of the Sociology of Religion volume 11 Chinese Religions Going Global seeks to challenge the dichotomous ordering of the western global and the Chinese local and to add a new perspective for understanding religious modernity globally Contributors from four continents who represent a range of specialisms apply social scientific methods in order to systematically research the globalization of Chinese religions

Annual Meeting Proceedings American Society of Clinical Oncology. Meeting, 2009 Higher Education in the Global Age Daniel Araya, Peter Marber, 2013-11-20 Discussions on globalization now routinely focus on the economic impact of developing countries in Asia Africa the Middle East the former Soviet Union and Latin America Only twenty five years ago many developing countries were largely closed societies Today the growing power of emerging markets is reordering the geopolitical landscape On a purchasing power parity basis emerging economies now constitute half of the world's economic activity Financial markets too are seeing growing integration Asia now accounts for 1/3 of world stock markets more than double that of just 15 years ago Given current trajectories most economists predict that China and India alone will account for half of global output by 2050 almost a complete return to their positions prior to the Industrial Revolution How is higher education shaping and being shaped by these massive tectonic shifts As education rises as a geopolitical priority it has converged with discussions on economic policy and a global labor market As part of the Routledge Studies in Emerging Societies series this edited collection focuses on the globalization of higher education particularly the increasing symbiosis between advanced and developing countries Bringing together senior scholars journalists and practitioners from around the world this collection explores the relatively new and changing higher education landscape
