Bombay Stories Vintage International:

Bombay Stories Saadat Hasan Manto, 2014-03-25 A collection of classic yet shockingly contemporary short stories set in the vibrant world of mid century Bombay from one of India's greatest writers Arriving in 1930s Bombay Saadat Hasan Manto discovered a city like no other A metropolis for all and an exhilarating hub of license and liberty bursting with both creative energy and helpless despondency A journalist screenwriter and editor Manto is best known as a master of the short story and Bombay was his lifelong muse Vividly bringing to life the city's seedy underbelly the prostitutes pimps and gangsters that filled its streets as well as the aspiring writers and actors who arrived looking for fame here are all of Manto's Bombay based stories together in English for the very first time By turns humorous and fantastical Manto's tales are the provocative and unflinching lives of those forgotten by humanity Inside Out Bradford Morrow, 2017-12-19 New writings on rooms buildings and the spaces and structures that surround us from Robert Coover Joyce Carol Oates Joanna Scott and more From huts to houses to high rises childhood bedrooms to churches the spaces we occupy and pass through shape our memories and perceptions often without our conscious awareness These stories essays and poems from a wide variety of contributors draw on our sense of place to explore the literal and metaphorical meanings of the roofs over our heads the walls that protect and separate us from others and the caves and castles that humans have made their homes throughout history Like the best architecture they combine form and function in a beautiful balance Conjunctions 68 Inside Out includes original work by Joanna Scott Andrew Mossin Claude Simon Cole Swensen Robert Clark Kathryn Davis Elizabeth Robinson Gabriel Blackwell Monica Datta Robert Kelly Mary South Brandon Hobson Lance Olsen Susan Daitch Ryan Call Nathaniel Mackey Ann Lauterbach Can Xue Matt Reeck Lisa Horiuchi Elaine Equi Robert Coover G C Waldrep Joyce Carol Oates Lawrence Lenhart Mark Irwin Justin Noga Karen Hays John Madera Karen Hueler and Frederic Tuten Legacies of the Homeland

Paramjeet Singh, 2018-04-07 This book is not intended to provide a list of the 100 best books ever written and published by Punjabi authors Given the sheer range of books written by Punjabi authors and the unpredictability of individual taste any such definitive list is quite impossible Secondly the choice has been restricted to books that were written by them either in Punjabi Hindi or Urdu but have been translated into English Thus personal choice restricted by availability has dictated this selection The choice of books includes autobiographies novels short stories poems and plays Research books religious books and books written originally in English have not been included From the Introduction I am amazed at the scholarship the passion and the love with which Paramjeet Singh has written this book It will be a reference volume for all times Nirupama Dutt Poet Journalist Translator Mr Singh's effort is commendable as he is making available some of the rarest of gems of Punjabi literature to the non Punjabi readers I congratulate Mr Singh on putting together this selection and hope that non Punjabi readers of this book would find new horizons of cultural experience opening up before them Of course for Punjabi readers it may be yet another opportunity to experience a sense of genuine pride in their rich legacy of language literature and culture Prof Rana Nayar Mirages of the Mind Mushtaq Ahmed Yousufi, 2014-05-20 Mushtaq Ahmed Yousufi's last published work Mirages of the Mind traces an arc of nostalgia between Pakistan and India. Its main characters, Indian Muslim immigrants to Pakistan, reminisce about and long for an impossible return to their pre-Partition life in India. The book's lightly fictionalized anecdotes, both humorous and poignantly sad, form a treasure trove of the arcana and subtle differences of twentieth-century Muslim life in the subcontinent. A cultural memoir, multi-layered biography, and anecdotal chain, Mirages of the Mind chronicles a milieu that has all but disappeared. Its narratives portray the hardships, heartbreak, and humour of colonial north Indian Muslim life and its subsequent forms in post-colonial India and Pakistan. The book's central character, Basharat, serves the role of a wise fool, equally ridiculous and full of penetrating, bizarre sense. Basharat's tales about his friends paint a rare and perhaps the last authentic picture of the literary and cultural life of South Asia's Urdu speakers. The first Urdu anthologies recalled the lives of poets exclusively in anecdotes. With Mirages of the Mind, Mushtaq Ahmed Yousufi rekindles this form and briefly illuminates the beauty of a culture that is fast receding into the darkness of the past.

Feminism in Contemporary British and Indian English Fiction Miti Pandey, 2003 Studies in Indian English Fiction Amar Nath Prasad, 2001 Indian Literature in English K. V. Surendran, 2002 Swimming Lessons and Other Stories from Firozsha Baag Rohinton Mistry, 1997 Explores the crowded, throbbing life of India in a collection of stories set in Firozsha Baag, a Bombay apartment building characterized by an unexpected sense of community. Swimming Lessons Rohinton Mistry, 2018-08-08 Firozsha Baag is an apartment building in Bombay. Its ceilings need plastering and some of the toilets leak appallingly, but its residents are far from desperate, though sometimes contentious and unforgiving. In these witty, poignant stories, Mistry charts the intersecting lives of Firozsha Baag, yielding a delightful collective portrait of a middle-class Indian community poised between the old ways and the new. A fine collection, the volume is informed by a tone of gentle compassion for seemingly insignificant lives. Michiko Kakutani, New York Times. "Muslim" Zahia Rahmani, 2019-03-19 Muslim: A Novel is a genre-bending poetic reflection on what it means to be Muslim from one of France's leading writers. In this novel, the second in a trilogy, Rahmani's narrator contemplates the loss of her native language and her imprisonment and exile for being Muslim, woven together in an exploration of the political and personal relationship of language within the fraught history of Islam. Drawing inspiration from the oral histories of her native Berber language, the Koran, and French children's tales, Rahmani combines fiction and lyric essay in to tell an important story, both powerful and visionary, of identity, persecution, and violence.
