Acts Reformed Expository Commentary:

Acts Derek Thomas, 2011 A highly respected Bible teacher guides us through Luke's record of the growth of the church starting at Pentecost moving throughout Asia Minor and continuing the story with us Acts, Part One Youngmo Cho, Hyung Dae Park, 2019-10-23 This book is one of the many commentaries on the book of Acts In other words it does not deal with a unique topic but one that borders on banality yet of utmost importance Without doubt it will suffice its role of moving one step closer to a complete understanding of the complex picture that Luke drew This commentary has been written by two Asian scholars with different theological backgrounds and thus will provide an unprecedented perspective This commentary pays attention to the historical background and to the narrative theological and rhetorical texture of the text in Acts In particular the periodical essays at the end of sections or chapters Fusing the Horizons reflect on what the text means for the new covenant community in terms of its theological message application and community and spiritual formation This is one of the many notable characteristics of this commentary Moreover this is an approachable and readable commentary by anyone who is interested in Acts Exalting Jesus in Acts Tony Merida, 2017-07-01 Edited by David Platt Daniel L Akin and Tony Merida this new commentary series projected to be 48 volumes takes a Christ centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible The Book of Acts Charles Raith II, 2019 The Book of Acts brings together leading Catholic Orthodox and Evangelical theologians to read and interpret the book of Acts from within their ecclesial tradition while simultaneously engaging one another in critical dialogue Combining both theological exegesis and ecumenical dialogue each chapter is uniquely structured to facilitate a rich reading of Scripture and an engaging though critical dialogue across the traditions Each chapter begins with a main essay by either a Catholic Orthodox or Evangelical theologian on a section of the book of Acts the main essay is followed by responses from theologians of the other two traditions The chapter concludes with a final response from the main author Readers are thus provided with not only a deep and engaging reading of the book of Acts but also the unfolding of a rich theological ecumenical dialogue centered on Scripture Anyone interested in understanding how our ecclesial traditions inform our reading of Scripture would do well to read this book as would anyone interested in the book of Acts ecumenical dialogue and the theological interpretation of Scripture Acts, Part Two Youngmo Cho, Hyung Dae Park, 2019-10-23 This book is one of the many commentaries on the book of Acts In other words it does not deal with a unique topic but one that borders on banality yet of utmost importance Without doubt it will suffice its role of moving one step closer to a complete understanding of the complex picture that Luke drew This commentary has been written by two Asian scholars with different theological backgrounds and thus will provide an unprecedented perspective This commentary pays attention to the historical background and to the narrative theological and rhetorical texture of the text in Acts In particular the periodical essays at the end of sections or chapters Fusing the Horizons reflect on what the text means for the new covenant community in terms of its theological message application and community and spiritual formation This is one of the many notable characteristics of this commentary Moreover this is an approachable and readable commentary by anyone who is interested in Acts A Biblical-Theological Introduction to the New Testament Michael J. Kruger,2016-05-31 Introductions to the New Testament often take a defensive stance focusing on historical critical issues but failing to address the interests and needs of pastors and Bible teachers However with an emphasis on the theology key themes and overall message of each book in the New Testament this collaborative effort of nine biblical scholars takes a more positive and pastorally relevant approach Written from a distinctly Reformed covenantal and redemptive historical perspective this theologically rich expositional resource will equip readers to study and teach each book in the New Testament with clarity and insight Cultural Contextualization of Apologetics Matt W. Lee,2022-03-03 In the post Christian world we find sincere efforts in traditional Christian apologetics repeatedly running into invisible walls These blocks happen when cultural issues are neglected With mere rational arguments presented as a defense of Christianity logical answers alone are not attracting the nonbelievers nor resolving their skepticism People today have different obstacles in coming to the Christian faith particularly their own cultural presuppositions How do we present defend and commend Christianity to people whose culture gives them a frame of mind the one that cares very little about how rational the arguments are Cultural Contextualization of Apologetics explores the world of the New Testament and the ministry of the apostle Paul to excavate a fresh model for apologetics with cultural engagement to present an answer Matt W Lee analyzes the dynamics involved in Paul s cultural connection with his audience and how it relates to their receptivity uncovering a scheme of apologetics engagement patterned in his apologetics speeches From the background of Paul s world to the forefront of contemporary apologetics preaching Cultural Contextualization of Apologetics offers a vision of apologetics communication that is both biblical and practical Forgotten Songs Ray Van Neste,C. Richard Wells,2012-10-01 Many in the church have forgotten the Psalms They may still be read but the rich history of using them as the backbone of Christian worship from the earliest days of the church until the 19th century is unknown For some the thought of praying or singing the Psalms alone or with others is entirely foreign In this we are out of step with our forebears in the faith we are an oddity in the history of the church and duly suffer for it Drawn by the rich spiritual depth produced in so many who have invested themselves in the Psalms Forgotten Songs seeks to reclaim the content in various areas of worship This book first examines biblical and historical foundations for the use of the Psalms in worship The Old Testament and New Testament are revisited noting the nature and purpose of the Psalms and how they were used Examples of the Psalms being employed by the Church Fathers and throughout the Reformation are also explored The second section of the book examines specific ways of using the Psalms in our worship today These aren t abstract ideas or suggestions but are examples from the personal and corporate lives of individuals who have been significantly impacted by the Psalms From group singing of the Psalms to praying Psalms publicly and privately to pastoral care and the place of lament Forgotten Songs will help others remember to actively use the Psalms

in their own worship lives individually and corporately Contributors include such academicians and authors as Craig A Blaising Douglas Bond Randall Bush Jack Collins Chad Davis J Michael Garrett James H Grant Jr James Richard Joiner Ray Ortlund Leland Ryken Calvin Seerveld Justin Wainscott and John D Witvliet along with editors Ray Van Neste and C Richard Wells

Expository Commentary on Acts Joseph Cordner Macaulay, 1978

Charismatic and Expository Preaching Lewis D. Mathis, 2022-05-11

The purpose of this study on charismatic and expository preaching is to find the common ground of the two preaching methods and solidify them into a sound biblical and theological preaching method that will edify the body of Christ and lead to growth for local churches To solidify charismatic and expository preaching it is necessary to explore the hermeneutical exegetical and homiletical issues that divide the two methods regarding the work of the Holy Spirit and the gifts the Spirit bestows to believers for ministry Charismatic interpretations concerning the gifts of the Spirit revolve around speaking in tongues as the primary identifier of being filled with the Spirit which most expository preachers and scholars view as an incorrect interpretation This study seeks to answer these problems in the quest of unifying both preaching methods
