The background of the book cover is a complex, abstract composition. On the right side, a large, glowing sphere transitions from a bright yellow at the top to a deep blue at the bottom, with a textured, almost crystalline surface. A network of thin, white, interconnected lines, resembling a neural or molecular structure, spreads across the entire dark background. In the lower-left quadrant, a trail of bright orange and red sparks or particles curves upwards and towards the center. The overall effect is one of dynamic energy and scientific mystery.
