Anoebis En De Demonen:

Anoebis en de demonen M. Heerma van Voss, 2024-06-03 The Coffin of Heqata Harco Willems, 1996 The coffin published in this book represents a type that had some popularity in southern Upper Egypt in the early Middle Kingdom but which despite its extraordinary decoration had not attracted attention so far The most striking feature of the decoration is that the object friezes the pictorial rendering of ritual implements usually found on coffin interiors of the period also include complete ritual scenes some of which are attested only here Apart from this the decoration includes an extensive selection of the religious texts known as the Coffin Texts The author first studies the archaeological context and dating of the coffin and attempts a reconstruction of the construction procedures from his technical description of the monument The detailed account of the decoration in the rest of the book interprets the ritual iconography and offers fresh translations and interpretations of the Coffin Texts A methodological innovation is that he regards the scenes and texts not as individual decoration elements but as components of an integral composition The background of this composition is argued to be a view of life in the hereafter in which the deceased is involved in an unending cycle of ritual action which reflects the funerary rituals that were actually performed on earth On the one hand these netherworldly rituals aim at bringing the deceased to new life by mummification on the other the newly regenerated deceased partakes in embalming rituals for gods representing his dead father Osiris or Atum These gods in their turn effectuate the deceased's regeneration The entire process results in a cycle of resuscitation in which the afterlife of the deceased and of the father gods are interdependent The sociological bias of this interpretation with its emphasis on kinship relations differs significantly from earlier attempts to explain Egyptian funerary religion A Hieroglyphic Dictionary of Egyptian Coffin Texts R. van der Molen, 2021-10-01 The present volume is the long awaited lexicon of Egyptian coffin texts In 1961 A de Buck published his important seven volume Egyptian Coffin Texts The major Egyptian dictionaries having appeared before that date De Buck's 1961 corpus of texts was left without lexicographical covering since then The importance of these texts however is considerable for a variety of reasons they are one of the most important literary texts of classical Egypt the many variants greatly enlarge our understanding of grammar and linguistic structures the coffin texts are magical texts the effectiveness of which depended upon the exact reproductions of the original spells Included are all the variant hieroglyphic forms and the fragments often reconstructed contained in De Buck's volume 7 Special features are a list reproduction of yet unreadable hieroglyphs as well as a list of the cryptic writings contained in the coffin texts The dictionary is shaped after Erman Grapow's Wörterbuch der ägyptischen Sprache and Faulkner's Egyptian Dictionary Origins of Osiris and his cult John Gwyn Griffiths, 2018-08-14 Preliminary Material J Gwyn Griffiths The Original Myth J Gwyn Griffiths The Original Cult J Gwyn Griffiths An Upper Egyptian God of The Royal Dead J Gwyn Griffiths The Association with Water and Vegetation J Gwyn Griffiths The Ruler and Judge of the Dead J Gwyn Griffiths The Cult and the Society J Gwyn Griffiths An Embryonic System of Salvation J Gwyn Griffiths Addenda J Gwyn Griffiths

The Divine Verdict John Gwyn Griffiths,1991 The theme of divine judgement has often been treated but usually with a concentration on one of its two main aspects either that which is seen in the present life and in history or that which is believed to occur only after death This new study seeks to combine the two aspects It also tries to cover the whole spectrum of the ancient religions Special attention is given to Israel Greece and Egypt Israel's neighbours are also considered and there are discussions of Judaism Christianity and Zoroastrianism In several areas notably in Egypt and Israel it is shown that punishment in this life is sometimes presented as a fate that man brings upon himself rather than as one imposed by God though always against a moral background derived from religion The origins of judgement after death in the Judaeo Christian tradition are examined in some detail and elements are traced to Egyptian Zoroastrian and Judaic sources Ägypten, die 21. Dynastie M. Heerma van Voss,2023-08-14 Anubis, Upwawet, and Other Deities Terence DuQuesne,2007 Ancient Egyptian religion is immensely complex in its symbolism and in its intellectual and artistic depth From the early times certain animals such as the cow the falcon and the snake were closely associated with religion and with kingship These animals are among the many embodiments of magical power This volume looks at the Egyptian attitude to animals the jackal deities and their relationships and the Saqqara stelae Who Was Who in Egyptology Morris L. Bierbrier,2021-12-31 The civilization of ancient Egypt has been a source of fascination for explorers and scholars for centuries and has occupied a special place in the imagination of the public ever since early travellers' descriptions and illustrations of the strange culture of temples tombs and hieroglyphs began to circulate around the world The story of Egyptology from a hobby for the educated and wealthy to a highly formalized academic discipline provides the key to understanding how and why we know what we know about ancient Egypt This biographical dictionary tells the stories of the most important contributors and will be an indispensable reference tool for scholars and enthusiasts alike Who Was Who in Egyptology remains one of the most important reference works for understanding the characters that contributed to the field of Egyptology and Egyptian archaeology from the Napoleonic invasion of Egypt through to the present day The fifth edition brings entries up to 2019 and is expected to be the last volume produced in print Studies in Egyptian Religion Jan: Festschrift Zandee,Matthieu Sybrand Huibert Gerard Heerma van Voss,1982 Egyptian Festivals Bleeker,2018-11-13
