Writing Part 2

I definately [definitely] think that teenage year's [years] should be the best in everyones [everyone's] life because you can have fun and you have fewer problems than adults [add full stop]. teenagers [capital T] Teenagers know how to have a good time. Most teenagers have a lot of freinds [friends] and they discuss things that they are interested in. Teenagers have to be in fashion, [add comma] wearing up-to-date cloths [clothes] and listening to modern music. They also like to do sports and compete in matchs [matches]. But teenager's [teenagers'] parents sometimes have a difficult time and they dont [don't] understand why ? . [full stop, not question mark] Wouldnt [Wouldn't] you feel angry if someone went into your room without permission ? ? [question mark, not full stop] So do teenagers. Teenagers stop thinking like children as they grow up and their believes [beliefs] and their interests change. My opinion is that teenage years are magical and I'd [I'd] like to stay a teenager forever.

Track 02

Speaker 1: Every year my family get together and go down to the river for a picnic. There's usually about 12 of us - kids and grown-ups. We always do the same thing and this year I said I wasn't going. But my parents insisted because they said it would look rude. I wouldn't have minded if it was just the afternoon but I wasn't looking forward to the whole day. When I got there though my cousin had brought a couple of her friends and we sat together. I had a good time but I would still have preferred to stay at home.

Speaker 2: Every year someone in my family arranges a day out in London for all of us. This year my mum and I did it and we chose to go to a musical. It was difficult to find a show that would appeal to everyone and we were a bit worried that my granny or my cousins wouldn't like it, as in my family everyone says what they think. So when everyone said they'd had a great time, we knew we'd made the right choice. Nobody complained, even when we missed the train home and we had to wait an hour in the station.

Speaker 3: Last weekend my aunt and uncle and cousins were staying and we decided to go out for the day. We were going to the seaside but we hadn't gone far when we drove past the zoo and my cousins said they wanted to go in. So we decided we'd go in for an hour and then carry on to the seaside. But there was so much to see that we stayed there all day. My mum and dad and my granny really aren't keen on zoos and were looking forward to a day on the beach but the rest of us didn't mind at all.

Speaker 4: My sister's birthday's in the summer so we usually go out somewhere for the day. She said she wanted to go to a theme park this year which was good for me as I don't usually want to do what she suggests. It's a new park quite near where I live. I only went on half the rides I wanted to because it's huge. The whole park shut at six - I suppose because it was getting dark. It didn't matter though because Mum and Dad said we can go again. They enjoyed sitting in the cafe and reading the newspapers.

Speaker 5: Last Sunday I went to the seaside with my family. My brother and sister are older than me and they didn't really want to come but I persuaded them as otherwise it would have been a bit boring with Mum, Dad and my grandparents. When we got there, we had a swim in the sea and a lovely picnic which my granny made. We agreed that we'd take a boat out in the afternoon but when we went to get one they were all out, which was a real shame. Unfortunately, we hadn't realised we needed to book. So we just went for another swim and then came home.

Listening for Democracy Andrew Dobson, 2014 Although much prized in daily conversation good listening has been almost completely ignored in that form of political conversation we know as democracy This book examines the reasons why so little attention has been paid to the listening aspect of democratic conversation explores the role that listening might play in democracy and outlines some institutional changes that could be made to make listening more central to democratic processes The focus on listening amounts to a reorientation of democratic theory and practice providing novel perspectives on enduring themes in democracy such as recognition representation power and legitimacy as well as some new ones such as silence Eschewing the pessimism of the realist turn in democratic theory the book shows how attention to listening can breathe life into the democratic project and help us to realise some of its objectives Drawing on practical examples and multidisciplinary sources the book shows how listening should be at the heart of representative and deliberative democracy rather than peripheral to them It develops a notion of dialogic democracy based on structured apophatic listening and meets the challenge of showing how this could be incorporated in parliamentary democracies What should we be listening out for This book addresses the question of political noise and uses the idea of recognition to develop an account of politics that takes us beyond the Aristotelian speaking being towards a Deweyan notion of the event around which publics coalesce
