Five years ago, businessman Simon Woodville had a good idea. He was in bed in first class on an international flight when he decided to open a hotel. The bed in the airplane gave him an idea. He could open a hotel with rooms like the sleeping area in an airplane. Now travellers in some of Britain's airports sleep in these small, low-cost rooms. The rooms are very small, only seven square metres, but they are very convenient. They are in the airport, so travellers who want only a night's sleep and a shower can save money and travelling time. Woodville calls his hotel 'Yotel'. Each room has a TV, a desk and a shower and costs £70. You can pay £70 for a bigger room that has a couch. Press a button, and the couch changes to a bed. The small rooms are very popular with travellers. Woodville thinks he will open more Yotels in city centres.
