Children's Activities for the Christian Year Delia Halverson, 2004-10-01 Children's Activities for the Christian Year by Delia Halverson offers Sunday school teachers and leaders of children's ministries practical information and activities on the cycle of the Christian church calendar. Useful, easy-to-use guidance resources and reproducible pages help new and veteran children's leaders interpret the meaning of the Christian year for children from preschool through elementary age. Each chapter includes brief information about the season, celebration, its origin, and its meaning. An introduction to the symbols and colors of each season, celebration, learning activities such as art, writing, crafts, drama, stories, and music. Reproducible pages including puzzles, litanies, songs, and readings. Active games. Worship suggestions. In addition to chapters on the Christian year as a whole and Sundays, mini-Easters, the book is organized by the following seasons and holy days: Advent and Christmas, Epiphany, Season after Epiphany, Ordinary Time, Ash Wednesday, Lent, and Holy Week, Eastertide, Pentecost, Season after Pentecost, Kingdomtide, Other Special Days, Trinity Sunday, Worldwide Communion Day, All Saints Day, Thanksgiving. By combining ready-to-use advice and activities, Children's Activities for the Christian Year is destined to become an essential guide in every children's ministry resource library.

Children's Sermons for Special Days Julia E Bland, 2002 If you're looking for children's material specifically tailored for holidays and other special, out-of-the-ordinary days, Julia Bland's latest collection is a practical resource that you'll draw on for fresh ideas throughout the year. readings a fully described and directed activity and several activity ideas all aimed at engaging the participants with God's word. This is an excellent resource for youth ministers, high school religion teachers, parish leaders, and liturgists working with youth.

Children's Sermons A to Z Brett Blair, 2000-07. Anyone who has done children's sermons will sooner or later hear from someone that they learn more from the children's sermon than they do from the real sermon. And indeed, the truths of scripture are so simple that even a child can understand them. So it's no accident that children's sermons have become a central part of the worship service in many churches. Brett Blair and Tim Carpenter offer a year's worth of object lessons that engage children and impart profound lessons for all ages. Two sermons are provided for each Sunday in Cycle C of the Revised Common Lectionary: one based on the Second Lesson and one based on the Gospel. The messages are structured in two parts: the lesson uses an object to draw out active responses from children; then the application connects that object to the assigned scripture reading. Each message includes a clear statement of its exegetical aim. Bright, innovative, perceptive, creative, grace-filled. Brett Blair and Tim Carpenter are all of those and much, much more, and that is reflected beautifully in their new book Children's Sermons A To Z. James W. Moore, Pastor, St. Luke's United Methodist Church, Houston, Texas. Brett Blair is associate pastor of Asbury United Methodist Church in Memphis, Tennessee. He holds the M.Div. degree from Yale University Divinity School and is a cum laude graduate of Oral Roberts University with B.A. and M.A. degrees in New Testament Literature. Tim Carpenter is the pastor at First United Methodist Church in Bolivar, Tennessee. He is a graduate of Memphis Theological Seminary, M.Div., and the University of Florida, B.A. in political science.

Offering the Gospel to Children Gretchen Wolff Pritchard, 1992-01-05. Gretchen Wolff Pritchard shows how to offer the gospel imaginatively to children with practical ideas on children's worship, liturgy, drama, pastoral care, and study of the Bible.
