

A green snake is coiled around a tree branch, its head raised and facing right. The snake's body is a vibrant green with darker green patterns. The background is dark and filled with green leaves and branches, creating a dense, naturalistic setting. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the snake's head and body against the dark background.

Language and Social Identity John J. Gumperz,1982 Throughout Western society there are now strong pressures for social and racial integration but in spite of these recent experience has shown that greater intergroup contact can actually reinforce social distinctions and ethnic stereotypes The studies collected here examine from a broad sociological perspective the sorts of face to face verbal exchange that are characteristic of industrial societies and the volume as a whole pointedly demonstrates the role played by communicative phenomena in establishing and reinforcing social identity The method of analysis that has been adopted enables the authors to reveal and examine a centrally important but hitherto little discussed conversational mechanism the subconscious processes of inference that result from situational factors social presuppositions and discourse conventions The theory of conversation and the method of analysis that inform the author's approach are discussed in the first two chapters and the case studies themselves examine interviews counselling sessions and similar formal exchanges involving contacts between a wide range of different speakers South Asians West Indians and native English speakers in Britain English natives and Chinese in South East Asia Afro Americans Asians and native English speakers in the United States and English and French speakers in Canada The volume will be of importance to linguists anthropologists psychologists and others with a professional interest in communication and its findings will have far reaching applications in industrial and community relations and in educational practice Adam & Eve & Pinch Me Alfred Edgar Coppard,1922 Adam and Eve and Pinch Me Alfred Edgar Coppard,1930 Index to Short Stories--Supplement Ina Ten Eyck Firkins,1929
