Addiction in the Lives of Registered Nurses and Their Wake-Up Jolt to Recovery Carol Stanford, 2018-10-15 In this age of increasing headlines about drug addiction and prescription drug abuse this book is a timely revelation of how the nursing profession is also impacted by substance abuse It allows nurses who are the most trusted profession in society who have been hidden within their profession and living with substance use disorders to openly voice their personal experiences with addiction Seven nurses detail their journey through family dynamics early use as nursing students and later career nurses as they traveled deeper and deeper into their addiction They discuss their shame humiliation and dejection under the throes of the compelling forces of drugs and alcohol They also describe how their family other nurses the healthcare system and society assisted them in perpetuating their deception and denial about their disease They explain how they lied stole and cheated those around them to maintain their addiction Each explains in detail the confrontations and the jolt and wake up call it took for them to awaken become sober and truly enter recovery They are all candid and forthright in order to help others that are impacted by this horrific and complex disease They each share how recovery is possible when appropriate attitudes and tools are put in place to support nurses suffering from the devastation of addiction Their stories bring attention to the importance of intervention treatment and recovery communities within the nursing profession Recovery is emphasized as a gift by each of these nurses The nurses and the researcher provide suggestions and recommendations to assist the healthcare community in addressing addiction in nursing This book reveals how recovery for nurses is a major public health benefit

Substance and Non-substance Addiction Xiaochu Zhang, Jie Shi, Ran Tao, 2017-11-02 This book focuses on the similarities and differences between substance and non substance addictions It discusses in detail the mechanisms diagnosis and treatment of substance and non substance addictions and addresses selected prospects that will shape future studies on addiction. Addiction is a global problem that costs millions of lives tremendous damage year after year. There are mainly two types of addiction: substance addiction (e.g., nicotine, alcohol, cannabis, heroin, stimulants, etc.) and non-substance addiction (e.g., gambling, computer gaming, Internet, etc.). Based on existing evidence, both types of addiction produce negative impacts on individuals' physical, mental, social, and financial well-being and share certain common mechanisms which involve a dysfunction of the neural reward system and specific gene transcription factors. However, there are also key differences between these two types of addiction. Covering these aspects systematically, the book will provide researchers and graduate students alike a better understanding of drug and behavioral addictions.

Addiction and Spiritual Transformation Srdjan Sremac, Srđan Sremac, 2013. This study explores the relationship between addiction and spiritual transformation. More specifically, it examines how recovering drug addicts employ testimonies of conversion and addiction to develop and sustain a sense of personal unity and create meaning from varied experiences in life. Drawing on 31 original autobiographies, the book analyzes conversion and addiction testimonies in two European contexts: Serbia and The Netherlands. Series: Religion and Biography, Religion und Biographie, Vol. 22. Addiction and Change, Second Edition Carlo C. DiClemente, 2018-01-18. Not everyone who experiments with substance use or risky behavior becomes addicted, and many who are addicted have been able to recover. This authoritative book, now revised and updated, has given tens of thousands of professionals and students a state-of-the-art framework for understanding the journey both into and out of addiction. From Carlo C. DiClemente, codeveloper of the transtheoretical model (TTM), the book identifies the stages and processes involved in initiating, modifying, maintaining, or stopping any pattern of behavior. Grounded in extensive research and illustrated with vivid case examples, the book shows how using the TTM can help overcome obstacles to change and make treatment and prevention more effective. Key words: Subject Areas: addictions, alcoholism, problem drinking, substance abuse, substance use disorders, addictive behaviors, chemical dependency, drugs, nicotine dependence, treatments, interventions, prevention, recovery, stages of change, processes, transtheoretical model, TTM, addiction research, motivational interviewing, behavior change, behavioural change, texts. Audience: Practitioners and graduate students in clinical psychology, clinical social work, psychiatric nursing, substance abuse counseling, and psychiatry.
