Painting With Light John Alton, 2023-12-22 Few cinematographers have had as decisive an impact on the cinematic medium as John Alton Best known for his highly stylized film noir classics T Men He Walked by Night and The Big Combo Alton earned a reputation during the 1940s and 1950s as one of Hollywood's consummate craftsmen through his visual signature of crisp shadows and sculpted beams of light No less renowned for his virtuoso color cinematography and deft appropriation of widescreen and Technicolor he earned an Academy Award in 1951 for his work on the musical An American in Paris First published in 1949 Painting With Light remains one of the few truly canonical statements on the art of motion picture photography an unrivaled historical document on the workings of postwar American cinema In simple non technical language Alton explains the job of the cinematographer and explores how lighting camera techniques and choice of locations determine the visual mood of film Todd McCarthy's introduction provides an overview of Alton's biography and career and explores the influence of his work on contemporary cinematography and the foreword written expressly for this edition by award winning cinematographer John Bailey explores Alton's often contentious relationships with colleagues the American Society of Cinematographers and the movie industry itself

Alcatraz in Light and Shadow Hayato Tokugawa, 2015-12-04 Alcatraz sits but a mile and a half off the shore of San Francisco and on a warm summer's day standing at the end of Muni Pier at Aquatic Park it seems so close that one could reach out and touch it On other days when the fog charges down the center of San Francisco Bay it becomes invisible Still on other days through the Bay's murkiness Alcatraz appears as a huge ocean liner making its way to safe harbor in the city The island is both an icon of the City by the Bay a part of the tapestry that is San Francisco and at the same time it remains a secretive place in the middle of the bay a mystery in plain view Life long San Francisco resident and photographer Hayato Tokugawa always loaded down with a variety of cameras is a frequent visitor to the island and no matter how many times he visits Alcatraz for him there are always new things to see new questions to be answered and new mysteries to be solved In Alcatraz in Light and Shadow after introducing us to the fascinating history of Alcatraz from military fortress to federal prison to park he takes us on a tour of the island sharing with us his images and impressions from the dark mystery of Chinatown Alley to the bright gardens that adorn Alcatraz from the chilling darkness of Broadway in the main cellblock to what lies below recording all that is Alcatraz in its many moods in both light and shadow Hollywood in San Francisco Joshua Gleich,2018-11-14 One of the country's most picturesque cities and conveniently located just a few hours drive from Hollywood San Francisco became the most frequently and extensively filmed American city beyond the production hubs of Los Angeles and New York in the three decades after World War II During those years the cinematic image of the city morphed from the dreamy beauty of Vertigo to the nightmarish wasteland of Dirty Harry although San Francisco itself experienced no such decline This intriguing disconnect gives impetus to Hollywood in San Francisco the most comprehensive study to date of Hollywood's move from studio to location production in the postwar era In this thirty year history of feature filmmaking in San Francisco Joshua Gleich tracks a sea change in Hollywood production practices as location shooting overtook studio based filming as the dominant production method by the early 1970s He shows how this transformation intersected with a precipitous decline in public perceptions of the American city to which filmmakers responded by developing a stark realist aesthetic that suited America's growing urban pessimism and superseded a fidelity to local realities Analyzing major films set in San Francisco ranging from Dark Passage and Vertigo to The Conversation The Towering Inferno and Bullitt as well as the TV show The Streets of San Francisco Gleich demonstrates that the city is a physical environment used to stage urban fantasies that reveal far more about Hollywood filmmaking and American culture than they do about San Francisco Country Guide and Nor'west Farmer ,1914 *G.I.
