Annie Ernaux Annie Ernaux:

The Years Annie Ernaux, 2017-11-21 WINNER OF THE 2022 NOBEL PRIZE IN LITERATURE One of the New York Times's 100 Best Books of the 21st Century Shortlisted for the 2019 Man Booker International Prize Considered by many to be the iconic French memoirist's defining work and a breakout bestseller when published in France in 2008 The Years is a personal narrative of the period 1941 to 2006 told through the lens of memory impressions past and present even projections into the future photos books songs radio television and decades of advertising headlines contrasted with intimate conflicts and writing notes from 6 decades of diaries Local dialect words of the times slogans brands and names for the ever proliferating objects are given voice here The voice we recognize as the author's continually dissolves and re-emerges Ernaux makes the passage of time palpable Time itself inexorable narrates its own course consigning all other narrators to anonymity A new kind of autobiography emerges at once subjective and impersonal private and collective On its 2008 publication in France The Years came as a surprise Though Ernaux had for years been hailed as a beloved bestselling and award-winning author The Years was in many ways a departure both an intimate memoir written by entire generations and a story of generations telling a very personal story Like the generation before hers the narrator eschews the I for the we or they or one as if collective life were inextricably intertwined with a private life that in her parents' generation ceased to exist She writes of her parents' generation and could be writing of her own book From a common fund of hunger and fear everything was told in the we and impersonal pronouns Co-winner of the 2018 French American Foundation Translation Prize in Nonfiction Winner of the 2017 Marguerite Yourcenar Prize for her entire body of work Winner of the 2016 Strega European Prize A Woman's Story Annie Ernaux, 2011-01-04 WINNER OF THE 2022 NOBEL PRIZE IN LITERATURE A New York Times Notable Book A deeply affecting account of mothers and daughters youth and age and dreams and reality Kirkus Reviews Upon her mother's death from Alzheimer's Ernaux embarks on a daunting journey back through time as she seeks to capture the real woman the one who existed independently from me born on the outskirts of a small Normandy town and who died in the geriatric ward of a hospital in the suburbs of Paris She explores the bond between mother and daughter tenuous and unshakable at once the alienating worlds that separate them and the inescapable truth that we must lose the ones we love In this quietly powerful tribute Ernaux attempts to do her mother the greatest justice she can to portray her as the individual she was She writes I believe I am writing about my mother because it is my turn to bring her into the world Happening Annie Ernaux, 2019-05-14 WINNER OF THE 2022 NOBEL PRIZE IN LITERATURE Happening recounts what it was like to be a young woman whose life changed and world ominously narrowed in 1963 with an unwanted pregnancy It feels urgently of the moment The New York Times In 1963 Annie Ernaux 23 and unattached realizes she is pregnant Shame arises in her like a plague Understanding that her pregnancy will mark her and her family as social failures she knows she cannot keep that child This is the story written forty years later of a trauma Ernaux never overcame In a France where abortion was illegal she attempted in vain to self administer the abortion with a knitting needle Fearful and desperate she finally located an abortionist and ends up in a hospital emergency ward where she nearly dies In Happening Ernaux sifts through her memories and her journal entries dating from those days Clearly clearly she gleans the meanings of her experience Now an award winning film by Audrey Diwan Winner of the Golden Lion at the Venice International Film Festival Official Selection of the Sundance Film Festival

The Young Man Annie Ernaux, 2023-09-12 WINNER OF THE 2022 NOBEL PRIZE IN LITERATURE Annie Ernaux's most recent book dazzling and breathtaking published in France in 2022 is about her affair with a man 30 years her junior A sublime book Elle Once again the work of the writer Annie Ernaux appears as both a rigorous study of life and an experiment These fragments of living however evanescent are precious irreplaceable like a skin that never fades Caroline Montpetit in Le Devoir The Young Man is Annie Ernaux's account of her passionate love affair with a man some 30 years younger when she was in her fifties The relationship pulls her back to memories of her own youth and at the same time leaves her feeling ageless outside of time together with a sense that she is living her life backwards Amidst talk of having a child together she feels time running its course and menopause approaching The Young Man recalls Ernaux as the scandalous girl she once was but is composed with the mastery and the self assurance she has achieved across decades of writing It was first published in France in 2022

Things Seen Annie Ernaux, 2010-03-01 Annie Ernaux's work wrote Richard Bernstein in the New York Times represents a severely pared down Proustianism a testament to the persistent haunting and melancholy quality of memory In the New York Times Book Review Kathryn Harrison concurred Keen language and unwavering focus allow her to penetrate deep to reveal pulses of love desire remorse In this journal Ernaux turns her penetrating focus on those points in life where the everyday and the extraordinary intersect where things seen reflect a private life meeting the larger world From the war crimes tribunal in Bosnia to social issues such as poverty and AIDS from the state of Iraq to the world's contrasting reactions to Princess Diana's death and the starkly brutal political murders that occurred at the same time from a tear gas attack on the subway to minute interactions with a clerk in a store Ernaux's thought provoking observations map the world's fleeting and lasting impressions on the shape of inner life

Exteriors Annie Ernaux, 1996-10-08 WINNER OF THE 2022 NOBEL PRIZE IN LITERATURE In this novel which takes the form of journal entries made over the course of seven years Annie Ernaux concentrates on the ephemeral encounters that take place just on the periphery of a person's lived environment She captures the feeling of contemporary living on the outskirts of a great city tortured chaotic lyrical and powerfully alive Exteriors is in many ways the most ecstatic of Ernaux's books the first in which she appears largely free of the haunting personal relationships she has written about so powerfully elsewhere and the first in which she is able to leave the past behind her

A Man's Place Annie Ernaux, 2012-05-29 WINNER OF THE 2022 NOBEL PRIZE IN LITERATURE A New York Times Notable Book Annie Ernaux's father died exactly two months after she passed her practical examination for a teaching certificate Barely educated and valued since childhood strictly for his labor Ernaux's father had grown into a hard practical man who showed his family little affection Narrating his slow ascent towards material comfort Ernaux's cold observation reveals the shame that haunted her father throughout his life She scrutinizes the importance he attributed to manners and language that came so unnaturally to him as he struggled to provide for his family with a grocery store and cafe in rural France Over the course of the book Ernaux grows up to become the uncompromising observer now familiar to the world while her father matures into old age with a staid appreciation for life as it is and for a daughter he cautiously even reluctantly admires A Man's Place is the companion book to her critically acclaimed memoir about her mother A Woman's Story

Simple Passion Annie Ernaux, 2003-08-05 WINNER OF THE 2022 NOBEL PRIZE IN LITERATURE A New York Times Notable Book In her spare stark style Annie Ernaux documents the desires and indignities of a human heart ensnared in an all-consuming passion Blurring the line between fact and fiction an unnamed narrator attempts to plot the emotional and physical course of her 2-year relationship with a married foreigner where every word event and person either provides a connection with her beloved or is subject to her cold indifference With courage and exactitude she seeks the truth behind an existence lived entirely for someone else and in the pieces of its aftermath she is able to find it
