

WHAT IS EXPOSITORY PREACHING?

"An expository sermon is based on a Bible passage, usually longer than a verse or two; the theme, the thesis and the major and minor divisions coming from the passage; the whole sermon being an honest attempt to unfold the true grammatical-historical-contextual meaning of the passage, making it relevant to life today by proper organization, argument, illustrations, application, and appeal." – Faris D. Whitesell

Studying the Bible is like digging for truth.

- Task Exegesis ("ex-eh-jee-sis"): critical study
- Tool Grammatical, historical, contextual research
- Goal The meaning of a passage is sometimes hidden beneath layers of context and subtext, so we need to dig into the text like we're excavating for gold.

Understanding the Bible requires sifting through possible meanings to discover valid interpretations.

- Task Hermeneutics ("her-men-ew-tics"): the art of understanding
- Tool Authorial intent (what the original author meant)
- Goal Identify the most-likely original meaning, as the author would have intended

Preaching the Bible means proclaiming its truths, applied to the lives of listeners today.

- Task Homiletics ("home-ill-eh-tics"): the art of preaching
- Tool Expository preaching
- Goal Preaching God's intended meaning in every passage, by the power and with the guidance of the Holy Spirit

Expository Preaching is Like Bridge-Building

John Stott described preaching as "bridge-building between the revealed Word and the contemporary world." He said, "Such preaching will be authoritative in expounding biblical principles, but tentative in applying them to the complex issues of the day." He asserted, "We should be praying that God will raise up a new generation of Christian communicators who are determined to bridge the chasm; who struggle to relate God's unchanging Word to our ever-changing world; who refuse to sacrifice truth to relevance or relevance to truth; but who resolve instead in equal measure to be faithful to Scripture and pertinent to today."
