of Tibet's greatest Buddhist masters is a shining jewel of Tibetan literature presenting essential teachings from the entire spectrum of practice lineages that existed in Tibet. In its eighteen volumes Kongtrul brings together some of the most important texts on key topics of Buddhist thought and practice as well as authoring significant new sections of his own. The Kadam lineage derives from the teachings and practices taught by the Indian master Atiśa and his Tibetan students. Atiśa spent twelve years in Tibet and left a scholarly and devotional lineage that would be significant to all traditions of Tibetan Buddhism but particularly the Geluk, the tradition of the Dalai Lamas which fashioned themselves as the New Kadam tradition. Jamgön Kongtrul's catalog to The Treasury of Precious Instructions classifies Kadam literature into five categories: treatise, instruction, esoteric practice, ancillary works, and associated works. The first two are the main topics covered in this volume: Lamrim or Stages of the Path and Lojong or Mind Training. These two Kadam teachings continue to exert a significant influence on Tibetan Buddhism and therefore represent the legacy of the Kadam tradition. The first centers around The Lamp for the Path to Enlightenment written by the eleventh century Indian master Atiśa who spent twelve years in Tibet and this volume also includes stories of Atiśa's life and travels. The second set of teachings consists of aphorisms known as the Seven Point Mind Training meant to be used as contemplative practices to develop compassion and transform the mind. These selections show not only the foundational texts of the Kadam tradition but also the widespread impact these teachings continued to have across traditions.

The Great Treatise on the Stages of the Path to Enlightenment (Volume 2)

Tsongkhapa, 2025-07-01 The Great Treatise on the Stages of the Path to Enlightenment Lam rim chen mo is one of the brightest jewels in the world's treasury of sacred literature. The author Tsongkhapa 1357-1419 completed this masterpiece in 1402 and it soon became one of the most renowned works of spiritual practice and philosophy in the world of Tibetan Buddhism. Tsongkhapa took great pains to base his incisive insights on the classical Indian Buddhist literature illustrating his points with classical citations as well as with sayings of the masters of the earlier Kadampa tradition. In this way the text demonstrates clearly how Tibetan Buddhism carefully preserved and developed the Indian Buddhist traditions. Volume One covers all practices that are prerequisite for developing the spirit of enlightenment bodhicitta. Volume Two explains how to train in the six perfections in order to develop the heart of compassion indispensable for any student who wants to put the Dharma into practice. Volume Three contains a presentation of the two most important topics to be found in the Great Treatise: meditative serenity shamatha and supramundane insight into the nature of reality vipasyana.

Steps on the Path to Enlightenment Lhundub Sopa, 2004 The third volume of Steps on the Path to Enlightenment Geshe Sopa's commentary on Tsongkhapa's Lamrim Chenmo introduces the reader to the path of the bodhisattvas. The volume begins with an explanation of what distinguishes the Mahayana practitioner from all other Buddhists: bodhicitta, the desire to attain enlightenment in order to benefit other sentient beings. The nature of bodhicitta, an essential practice for persons of great spiritual capacity is described in depth and Geshe Sopa then provides a detailed contemporary commentary on the two methods to develop this attitude the sevenfold cause and effect personal instructions based on the teachings of the lineage descended from Atisa and the training to exchange self and other based on Santideva's Engaging in the Bodhisattva's Deeds Bodhicitta is an incredibly important attitude but the attitude alone is not enough to attain enlightenment a practitioner must perform actions motivated by bodhicitta in other words the six bodhisattva perfections After a general introduction this volume contains a detailed explanation of the first four perfections generosity ethical discipline patience and joyful perseverance Here we find only a brief summary of the final two perfections meditative stabilization and wisdom to prepare the reader for the detailed discussion of these topics in the last two volumes of the series To tie all these practices together the volume concludes with an explanation of how Mahayana practitioners help others to mature spiritually the four ways to gather disciples

The Bodhisattva Path of Wisdom and Compassion Chogyam Trungpa, 2014-04-15 Ch gyam Trungpa continues his study of the three yanas of Tibetan Buddhism with this overview of the teachings of the mahayana This three volume collection presents in lively relevant language the comprehensive teachings of the Tibetan Buddhist path of the hinayana mahayana and vajrayana Considered Ch gyam Trungpa's magnum opus The Profound Treasury of the Ocean of Dharma will resonate with new and senior students of Buddhism In this second volume Ch gyam Trungpa presents the bodhisattva teachings of the mahayana At this point having trained and seen the benefits of looking within the student begins to shift their focus outward to the broader world Formal entry into the mahayana occurs with taking the bodhisattva vow Mahayana practitioners dedicate themselves to the service of all sentient beings aspiring to save them from sorrow and confusion and vowing to bring them to perfect liberation This stage of the path emphasizes the cultivation of wisdom through the view and experience of emptiness or shunyata in which all phenomena are seen to be unbounded completely open ungraspable and profound From the ground of shunyata compassionate activity is said to arise naturally and spontaneously In addition to mindfulness and awareness the mahayanist practices lojong or mind training based on the cultivation of the paramitas or transcendent virtues generosity discipline patience exertion meditation and prajna or knowledge As a component of lojong tonglen or sending and taking is practiced in order to increase maitri or loving kindness Other topics covered in detail in this volume include bodhicitta skillful means Buddha nature and basic goodness Madhyamaka the ten bhumi's the three kayas and more
