Collaborations Cherie P. Pandora, Stacey Hayman, 2013-08-15 In this practical guidebook experienced librarians a public librarian and a school librarian share advice and ideas for extending resources containing costs and leveraging capabilities between school and public libraries offering insights and strategies to overcome today's economic challenges. The current economic crisis has had a drastic impact on both public and school libraries. As budgets shrink, resources become scarcer and the job of the librarian becomes harder. The conundrum of doing more with less challenges even the most seasoned professionals whose institutions face service cutbacks, disappointed patrons, and possible job eliminations or closures. This book asserts that a collaboration between school and public libraries can effectively serve the needs of two populations: teens and the community at large, while minimizing the cost to do so. Better Serving Teens through School Library Public Library Collaborations offers thought-provoking advice and ideas for practical use in real-world libraries. The authors provide step-by-step guidance for those who wish to start, strengthen, or extend a partnership with colleagues at a sister library, covering topics ranging from teen advisory boards and collaborative programs to homework help and professional development. Veterans in the field as well as beginners can utilize the wealth of tools within, including worksheets, timelines, and checklists, to leverage the capabilities of other agencies to fortify both their own and their institutions' value.

THE 1960's: A DECADE I REMEMBER Nancy Hoffman, 2024-08-12. In sixty essays, Nancy Hoffman gives you a glimpse of growing up in the sixties. A retired teacher of thirty-two years, Nancy shares her memories and insights of an iconic decade. After reading her words and enjoying the many retro photos, it is the hope of this author that you, the reader, walk away with a positive feeling about this memorable time in history. Since her retirement, Mrs. Hoffman has loved having more time to write along with her writer-illustrator husband, Roger.
