Lummis,2019 A Tramp Across the Continent (Classic Reprint) Charles F. Lummis,2017-09-10 Excerpt from A Tramp Across the Continent I would have this unpretentious book taken only for what it is the wayside notes of a happy vagabondizing It was written in hurried moments by the coal oil lamps of country hotels the tallow dips of section house or ranch the smoky pine knots of the cowboy s or the hunter s cabin the crackling fogon of a Mexican adobe or the snapping greasewood of my lonely campfire upon the plains and from that vagrant body and Spirit I have not tried to over civilize it A prim chronicle of such a trip would be no chronicle at all Nor have I desired to make it either an atlas or an encyclo paedia of the country Economic and geographic essays do not belong within its s00pe It is merely a truthful record of some of the experiences and impressions of a walk across the continent the diary of a man who got outside the fences of civil ization and was glad of it It is the simple story of joy on legs About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
