A Way Forward Building A Globally Competitive South:

A Way Forward Daniel P. Gitterman, Peter A. Coclanis, 2011-12-19 In the last half century North Carolina and the South have experienced rapid economic growth Much of the best analysis of this progress came from two North Carolina based research organizations the Southern Growth Policies Board and MDC originally a project of the North Carolina Fund Their 1986 reports are two of the best assessments of the achievements and limitations of the so called Sunbelt boom On November 17 2011 the Global Research Institute at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and the Institute for Emerging Issues at North Carolina State University co hosted a public discussion to build on these classic reports and to offer fresh analyses of the current challenges facing the region A Way Forward which issued from this effort features more than thirty original essays containing recommendations and strategies for building and sustaining a globally competitive South The South in Red and Purple: Southernized Republicans, Diverse Democrats J. Ferrel Guillory, 2012-09-01 Politically the South is not an assembly of states acting in unison in the grip of one party The region is not one South undivided This article appears in the Fall 2012 issue of Southern Cultures The full issue is also available as an ebook Southern Cultures is published quarterly spring summer fall winter by the University of North Carolina Press The journal is sponsored by the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill s Center for the Study of the American South Southern Cultures: The Politics Issue Harry L. Watson, Jocelyn Neal, 2012-09-01 In the Fall 2012 issue of Southern Cultures Guest Editor Ferrel Guillory s special election year Politics issue features Five Big Things You Need to Know About the South for this Election The Past Present and Future of Southern Politics Jack Bass on Citizens United Strom Thurmond the Southern Strategy and Jackie O Control of Public Schools and the Politics of Desegregation The South in the Shadow of Nazism Documenting the Political Immigrant Debate Today Bill Clinton on Bill Clinton and more Southern Cultures is published quarterly spring summer fall winter by the University of North Carolina Press The journal is sponsored by the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill s Center for the Study of the American South A Way Forward ,2011 Problem Solving with the Private Sector Daniel E. examines ways in which formerly prosperous regions can renew their economy during and after a period of industrial and economic recession Using New York's Capital Region i.e Albany Troy Schenectady etc as a case study the authors show how entrepreneurship innovation investment in education research and political collaboration are critical to achieving regional success In this way the book provides other regions and nations with a real life model for successful economic development In the past half century the United States and other nations have seen an economic decline of formerly prosperous regions as a result of new technology and globalization One of the hardest hit United States regions is Upstate New York or the Capital Region it experienced a demoralizing hemorrhage of manufacturing companies jobs and people to other regions and countries To combat this the region with the help of state leaders mounted a decades long effort to renew and restore the region's economy with a particular focus on nanotechnology As a result New York's Capital Region successfully added thousands of well paying skill intensive manufacturing jobs New York's success story serves as a model for economic development for policy makers that includes major public investments in educational institutions and research infrastructure partnerships between academia industry and government and creation of frameworks for intra regional collaboration by business government and academic actors Featuring recommendations for best practices in regional development policy this book is appropriate for scholars students researchers and policy makers in regional development innovation R D policy economic development and economic growth

Best Practices in State and Regional Innovation Initiatives National Research Council,Policy and Global Affairs,Board on Science, Technology, and Economic Policy,Committee on Competing in the 21st Century: Best Practice in State and Regional Innovation Initiatives,2013-07-04 Most of the policy discussion about stimulating innovation has focused on the federal level This study focuses on the significant activity at the state level with the goal of improving the public's understanding of key policy strategies and exemplary practices Based on a series of workshops and conferences that brought together policymakers along with leaders of industry and academia in a select number of states the study highlights a rich variety of policy initiatives underway at the state and regional level to foster knowledge based growth and employment Perhaps what distinguishes this effort at the state level is most of all the high degree of pragmatism Operating out of necessity innovation policies at the state level often involve taking advantage of existing resources and recombining them in new ways forging innovative partnerships among universities industry and government organizations growing the skill base and investing in the infrastructure to develop new technologies and new industries Many of these initiatives are being guided by leaders from the private sector and universities The objective of Best Practices in State and Regional Innovation Initiatives Competing in the 21st Century is not to do an empirical review of the inputs and outputs of various state programs Nor is it to evaluate which programs are superior Indeed some of the notable successes such as the Albany nanotechnology cluster represent a leap of leadership investment and sustained commitment that has had remarkable results in an industry that is actively pursued by many countries The study's goal is to illustrate the approaches taken by a variety of highly diverse states as they confront the increasing challenges of global competition for the industries and jobs of today and tomorrow

Sharing the Prize Gavin Wright, 2013-02-25 Southern bus boycotts and lunch counter sit ins were famous acts of civil disobedience but were also demands for jobs in the very services being denied blacks Gavin Wright shows that the civil rights struggle was of economic benefit to all parties the wages of southern blacks increased dramatically but not at the expense of southern whites

New Voyages to Carolina Larry E. Tise, Jeffrey J. Crow, 2017-09-14 New Voyages to Carolina offers a bold new approach for understanding and telling North Carolina's history Recognizing the need for such a fresh approach and reflecting a generation of recent scholarship eighteen distinguished authors have sculpted a broad inclusive narrative of the state's evolution over more than four centuries The volume provides new lenses and provocative possibilities for reimagining the state's past Transcending traditional markers of wars and elections the contributors map out a new chronology encompassing geological realities the unappreciated presence of Indians blacks and women religious and cultural influences and abiding preferences for industrial development within the limits of progressive politics While challenging traditional story lines the authors frame a candid tale of the state's development Contributors Dorothea V Ames East Carolina University Karl E Campbell Appalachian State University James C Cobb University of Georgia Peter A Coclanis University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Stephen Feeley McDaniel College Jerry Gershenhorn North Carolina Central University Glenda Elizabeth Gilmore Yale University Patrick Huber Missouri University of Science and Technology Charles F Irons Elon University David Moore Warren Wilson College Michael Leroy Oberg State University of New York College at Geneseo Stanley R Riggs East Carolina University Richard D Starnes Western Carolina University Carole Watterson Troxler Elon University Bradford J Wood Eastern Kentucky University Karin Zipf East Carolina University

On the Freedom Side Wesley C. Hogan, 2019-10-02 As Wesley C Hogan sees it the future of democracy belongs to young people While today's generation of leaders confronts a daunting array of existential challenges increasingly it is young people in the United States and around the world who are finding new ways of belonging collaboration and survival That reality forms the backbone of this book as Hogan documents and assesses young people's interventions in the American fight for democracy and its ideals Beginning with reflections on the inspiring example of Ella Baker and the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee in the 1960s Hogan profiles youth led organizations and their recent work Examples include Southerners on New Ground SONG in the NAFTA era Oakland's Ella Baker Center and its fight against the school to prison pipeline the Dreamers who are fighting for immigration reform the Movement for Black Lives that is demanding a reinvestment in youth of color and an end to police violence against people of color and the International Indigenous Youth Council water protectors at Standing Rock who fought to stop the Dakota Access Pipeline and protect sovereign control of Indigenous lands As Hogan reveals the legacy of Ella Baker and the civil rights movement has often been carried forward by young people at the margins of power and wealth in U S society This book foregrounds their voices and gathers their inventions not in a comprehensive survey but as an activist mix tape with lively fresh perspectives on the promise of twenty first century U S democracy
