A Woman Divided Poems Inspired By Georgia O'Keeffe:

A Woman Divided Judy Longley, 2007-12 Stunned by an exhibit of Georgia O'Keeffe at the National Gallery of Art in the late 80s I became intrigued by one of America's great artists Responding to the images in her paintings and her fascinating life with husband Alfred Stieglitz the famous photographer I began an imaginary poetic biography She suffered conflicts still pertinent to women artists of any genre today How to fulfill one's gifts and be in relationship Her love for Stieglitz and his obdurate refusal to join her when her creative path led to New Mexico created a woman divided With pain we are unable to measure she crisscrossed the country between Alfred in New York and her beloved West After Alfred's death still haunted by her choice she worked into her nineties painting the Western landscape Her vibrant body of work remains a legacy to us all earth history colors streaking across the flat land Georgia's love of the vast colorful prairie plains and sky again gave definition to her life when she discovered Ghost Ranch north of Abiquiu New Mexico She fell prey to its charms which were not long removed from the echoes of the Wild West These views of prairie plains and sky became Georgia's muses as she embarked on her step by step path with her role models Alon Bement Arthur Jerome Dow and Wassily Kandinsky In this two part biography of which this is Part I covering the period 1887 1945 Nancy Hopkins Reily walks the Sun Prairie Land as if in Georgia's day as a prologue to her family's friendship with Georgia in the 1940s and 1950s Reily chronicles Georgia's defining days within the arenas of landscape culture people and the history surrounding each a discourse level that Georgia would easily recognize NANCY HOPKINS REILY was a classic outdoor color portraitist for more than twenty years and has taught portrait workshops at Angelina College in Lufkin Texas where she had a one woman show of her portraits Her advance studies included an invitational workshop with Ansel Adams Reily graduated from Southern Methodist University and lives in Lufkin Texas She is also the author of Classic Outdoor Color Portraits and Joseph Imhof Artist of the Pueblos both from Sunstone Press The Western Humanities Review, 1999 Georgia O'Keeffe, A Private Friendship, Part I Nancy Hopkin Reily, 2014-12-01 The time is 1887 From any window in Georgia O'Keeffe's Sun Prairie Wisconsin birthplace home she only saw the Wisconsin prairie with its traces of roads veering around the flat marshlands and a vast sky that lifted her soul At twelve years of age Georgia had a defining moment when she declared I want to be an artist Years later from her east facing window in Canyon Texas she observed the Texas Panhandle sky with its focus points on the plains and a great canyon of earth history colors streaking across the flat land Georgia's love of the vast colorful prairie plains and sky again gave definition to her life when she discovered Ghost Ranch north of Abiquiu New Mexico She fell prey to its charms which were not long removed from the echoes of the Wild West These views of prairie plains and sky became Georgia's muses as she embarked on her step by step path with her role models Alon Bement Arthur Jerome Dow and Wassily Kandinsky In this two part biography of which this is Part I covering the period 1887 1945 Nancy Hopkins Reily walks the Sun Prairie Land as if in Georgia's day as a prologue to her family's friendship with Georgia in the 1940s and 1950s Reily chronicles Georgia's defining days within the arenas of landscape culture people and the history surrounding each a discourse level that Georgia would easily recognize Georgia O'Keeffe Janet Souter, 2011-07-01 In 1905 Georgia travelled to Chicago to study painting at the Art Institute of Chicago In 1907 she enrolled at the Art Students League in New York City where she studied with William Merritt Chase During her time in New York she became familiar with the 291 Gallery owned by her future husband photographer Alfred Stieglitz In 1912 she and her sisters studied at university with Alon Bement who employed a somewhat revolutionary method in art instruction originally conceived by Arthur Wesley Dow In Bement's class the students did not mechanically copy nature but instead were taught the principles of design using geometric shapes They worked at exercises that included dividing a square working within a circle and placing a rectangle around a drawing then organising the composition by rearranging adding or eliminating elements It sounded dull and to most students it was But Georgia found that these studies gave art its structure and helped her understand the basics of abstraction During the 1920s O Keeffe also produced a huge number of landscapes and botanical studies during annual trips to Lake George With Stieglitz s connections in the arts community of New York from 1923 he organised an O Keeffe exhibition annually O Keeffe s work received a great deal of attention and commanded high prices She however resented the sexual connotations people attached to her paintings especially during the 1920s when Freudian theories became a form of what today might be termed pop psychology The legacy she left behind is a unique vision that translates the complexity of nature into simple shapes for us to explore and make our own discoveries She taught us there is poetry in nature and beauty in geometry Georgia O Keeffe s long lifetime of work shows us new ways to see the world from her eyes to ours
