Affirmative Advocacy Race Class And Gender In Interest Group Politics:

Affirmative Advocacy Dara Z. Strolovitch, 2008-09-15 The United States boasts scores of organizations that offer crucial representation for groups that are marginalized in national politics from women to racial minorities to the poor Here in the first systematic study of these organizations Dara Z Strolovitch explores the challenges and opportunities they face in the new millennium as waning legal discrimination coincides with increasing political and economic inequalities within the populations they represent Drawing on rich new data from a survey of 286 organizations and interviews with forty officials Strolovitch finds that groups too often prioritize the interests of their most advantaged members male rather than female racial minorities for example or affluent rather than poor women But Strolovitch also finds that many organizations try to remedy this inequity and she concludes by distilling their best practices into a set of principles that she calls affirmative advocacy a form of representation that aims to overcome the entrenched but often subtle biases against people at the intersection of more than one marginalized group Intelligently combining political theory with sophisticated empirical methods Affirmative Advocacy will be required reading for students and scholars of American politics

New Directions in Interest Group Politics Matt Grossmann, 2013-10-23 Reflecting cutting edge scholarship but written for undergraduates New Directions in Interest Group Politics will help students think critically about influence in the American political system There is no shortage of fear about the special interests in American political debate but reliable information about what interest groups do who they represent and how they influence government is often lacking This volume comprised of original essays by leading scholars is designed to summarize and explain contemporary research that helps address popular questions and concerns making studies accessible to undergraduate students and providing facts to buttress informed debate The book covers the mobilization of interest groups their activities and their influence Each chapter briefly reviews research on a central question of scholarship before focusing on a particular empirical project designed to shed light on the topic Rather than simply providing a descriptive overview the chapters are designed to foster critical thinking by getting students to assess the role of interest groups in the American political system and supplying evidence of their effects Importantly a set of web resources associated with the book offer instructions for research and writing assignments Students will be able to collect and analyze data on campaign finance lobbying and interest group involvement in governance The eResource website includes materials for several classroom simulations such as an interest group legislative battle a Netroots convention and a rule making process As they read about key questions in democratic government and current research trends students can practice serving as interest group activists and conduct original research on topics that most interest them

Black Politics in a Time of Transition Michael Mitchell, David Covin, 2011-12-31 Black Politics in a Time of Transition appears at an historic point in American politics From the vantage point of the maturation of the study of black politics this volume provides a framework for current and future discussion of this critical time Incorporating the expanded stream of work on today's black politics this latest volume of the National Political Science Review is also a new assessment of the period from which the study of black politics emerged Selected for this volume are chapters of contemporary relevance alongside those that reconsider an early twentieth century pioneer in black politics and history W E B Du Bois The volume also includes a robust book review section that spans a range of topics from the South's new racial politics to the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina This volume features work by varied and accomplished scholars including Black Power in Black Presidential Bids From Jackson to Obama Katherine Tate But I Voted for Obama Melodrama and Post Civil Rights Post Feminist Ideology in Grey's Anatomy Crash and Barack Obama's 2008 Presidential Bid Nikol Alexander Floyd Afro Brazilian Black Linked Fate in Salvador and S o Paulo Brazil Gladys Mitchell and Beyond Tactical Withdrawal An Early History of the National Conference of Black Political Scientists Joseph P McCormick II

Race, Gender, and Political Representation Beth Reingold, Kerry Lee Haynie, Kirsten Widner, 2021 It is well established that the race and gender of elected representatives influence the ways in which they legislate but surprisingly little research exists on how race and gender interact to affect who is elected and how they behave once in office This book takes up the call to think about representation in the United States as intersectional and it measures the extent to which political representation is simultaneously gendered and raced Drawing on original data on the presence policy leadership and policy impact of Black women and men Latinas and Latinos and White women and men in state legislative office in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries this book demonstrates what an intersectional approach to identity politics can reveal

The Oxford Handbook of American Political Development Richard M. Valelly, Suzanne Mettler, Robert C.
