African Absurdities Hama Tuma, 2002 The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 Simon Gikandi, Evan Mwangi, 2007-04-24

The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 challenges the conventional belief that the English language literary traditions of East Africa are restricted to the former British colonies of Kenya Uganda and Tanzania Instead these traditions stretch far into such neighboring countries as Somalia and Ethiopia Simon Gikandi and Evan Mwangi assemble a truly inclusive list of major writers and trends They begin with a chronology of key historical events and an overview of the emergence and transformation of literary culture in the region Then they provide an alphabetical list of major writers and brief descriptions of their concerns and achievements Some of the writers discussed include the Kenyan novelists Grace Ogot and Ngugi wa Thiong'o Ugandan poet and essayist Taban Lo Liyong Ethiopian playwright and poet Tsegaye Gabre Medhin Tanzanian novelist and diplomat Peter Palangyo Ethiopian novelist Berhane Mariam Sahle Sellassie and the novelist M G Vassanji who portrays the Indian diaspora in Africa Europe and North America Separate entries within this list describe thematic concerns such as colonialism decolonization the black aesthetic and the language question the growth of genres like autobiography and popular literature important movements like cultural nationalism and feminism and the impact of major forces such as AIDS HIV Christian missions and urbanization Comprehensive and richly detailed this guide offers a fresh perspective on the role of East Africa in the development of African and world literature in English and a new understanding of the historical cultural and geopolitical boundaries of the region

Give Me a Dog's Life Any Day Hama Tuma, 2004 Give Me a Dog's Life Any Day the second book of African Absurdities by Hama Tuma is a collection of satirical articles on the African and the world political reality of the double standards that exist the follies of governments and politicians and of citizens too There is parody here ironic laughter at the very serious problems of Africa a call to ponder on the failures of governance the lack of democracy using the prism of irreverent satire Nothing is sacred the pompous leaders are made fun of and their naked state exposed Book II of African Absurdities goes even farther than Book I in poking fatal fun at African leaders their patrons in the West and at life in general This is a book that will entertain and make you laugh but it will be the laughter of the knowing the victim the conscious and the one who is keen on justice but is realistic enough to know that this world is not fair to the weak and the defenseless

Politically Incorrect Guide to Climate Change Marc Morano, 2018-02-26 Updated to include new section on the Green New Deal The climate scare ends with this book SEAN HANNITY This book arms every citizen with a comprehensive dossier on just how science economics and politics have been distorted and corrupted in the name of saving the planet MARK LEVIN Less freedom More regulation Higher costs Make no mistake those are the surefire consequences of the modern global warming campaign waged by political and cultural elites who have long ago abandoned fact based science for dramatic fearmongering in order to push increased central planning The Politically Incorrect Guide to Climate Change gives a voice backed by statistics real life stories and incontrovertible evidence to the millions of deplorable Americans skeptical about the multibillion dollar climate change complex whose claims have time and time again been proven wrong Dilemmas of Democracy and Dictatorship Michael Radu, The phenomenon of globalization applies to political violence as well as to more benign aspects of life Most people in the West as well as the Third World politicians and media included are still missing this point As a result they are failing to adapt to the new realities unlike their enemies Dilemmas of Democracy and Dictatorship is a collection of essays Radu has published over the past decade Some are opinion pieces others are academic articles The topics include political violence and terrorism in general and in specific areas Latin America the Balkans Turkey Sub Saharan Africa Western and Eastern Europe Radu discusses the causes and methods of contemporary terrorism the process of state decay in some African countries and mentalities and absurdities in Latin and Balkan politics He also points out Western European illusions delusions and attitudes and reviews American policy and confusion in dealing with the Third World At times the analysis is political other times military and often it is sociological or psychological In the author s words he is always politically incorrect The approach is multidisciplinary What ties these disparate essays together is Radu s personal experience both as a field researcher and in a few cases as a participant in ongoing events and his personal idiosyncrasies opinions and perception of areas visited These essays clearly demonstrate that in the face of globalization the world is not a village but a conglomerate of differences This volume will be of particular interest to students of political violence insurgency guerrilla warfare and Third World politics journalists and policymakers Michael S Radu is senior fellow and co chairman of the Center on Terrorism at the Foreign Policy Research Institute in Philadelphia Educated in communist Romania and at Columbia University he has taught in the United States and South Africa He has traveled to over forty countries doing research on local politics and political violence and has served as electoral observer in four countries including as a UN observer in Cambodia He is the author or editor of ten books Icons of Unbelief S. T. Joshi, 2008-10-30 Discusses the ideas and impact of 27 atheists agnostics and secularists whose ideas have shaped society over the last 200 years In the opinion of many critics and philosophers we are entering an age of atheism marked by the waning of Christian fundamentalism and the flourishing of secular thought Through alphabetically arranged entries written by expert contributors this book profiles 27 iconic figures of unbelief whose ideas have shaped American society over the last 200 years Included are entries on influential figures of the past such as Albert Einstein and Voltaire as well as on such contemporary figures as Richard Dawkins and Sam Harris Each entry discusses the ideas and lasting significance of each person or group provides sidebars of interesting information and illuminating quotations and cites works for further reading The volume closes with a selected general bibliography Students in social studies and history classes will welcome this reference as a guide to the ideas central to the American separation of Church and State and to many of the political debates at the heart of society today Each entry discusses the ideas and lasting significance of the person or group provides sidebars of interesting information and quotations and closes with a list of works for further reading The volume ends with a selected general bibliography Students in history and social studies classes will welcome this reference as a guide to the American separation of Church and State and to the ideas central to contemporary political debates
