Africa's Greatest Entrepreneurs Moky Makura:

Africa's Greatest Entrepreneurs Moky Makura, 2012-09-19 Who are the real power brokers in Africa Who are the dynamic entrepreneurs making things happen on the continent How did they do it and what are their personal stories Africa's greatest entrepreneurs is a collection of stories about 16 of the most successful entrepreneurs and business visionaries currently operating in Africa Each chapter is dedicated to a single entrepreneur and focuses on a sometimes tumultuous often challenging but mostly exciting journey to success This fascinating and well researched title examines the life of each entrepreneur and maps out the path each elected to follow in tackling and overcoming the obstacles that stood in the way of the realisation of their dreams Meet among others Kagiso Mmusi the Motswana transport millionaire Richard Maponya the South African retail giant behind Soweto's Maponya Mall Kwabena Adjei the rags to riches Ghanaian millionaire Wale Tinubu the Nigerian head of the Oando oil and gas giant Ndaba Ntsele the South African king of high finance and Mo Ibrahim the Sudanese born telecoms millionaire The author sheds light on the different historical political and economic power structures that helped create and in some cases frustrate these business heroes This title shines the spotlight on and provides an unprecedented insight into a new breed of African hero some of whose stories have never been told until now Africa's Past, Our Future Kathleen R. Smythe, 2015-07-06 An impressive synthesis of current literature in African history making it understandable and relevant Jan Bender Shetler author of Imagining Serengeti A History of Landscape Memory in Tanzania from Earliest Times to the Present Africa's Past Our Future engages the history of the African continent through the perspective of global issues such as political instability economic development and climate change Since the past may offer alternative models for thinking about our collective future this book promotes an appreciation for African social economic and political systems that have endured over the long term and that offer different ways of thinking about a sustainable future Introducing readers to the wide variety of sources from which African history is constructed the book's ten chapters cover human evolution the domestication of plants and animals climate change social organization the slave trade and colonization development and contemporary economics and politics Smythe not only provides an excellent survey of the latest research on Africa's past she also presents a concise and clear argument as to why this history is relevant today African Studies Review Recommended Choice Grapples with the narratives and facts and where they fit in global perspective but why this is all salient and critically meaningful to our lives today in terms of lessons we can learn and ideas we can borrow This is a unique approach not yet available on the market Catherine Cymone Fourshey Susquehanna University

Challenges to African Entrepreneurship in the 21st Century Darko Opoku, Eve Sandberg, 2017-10-09 This volume offers an overview of the critical challenges faced by aspiring African entrepreneurs and their coping strategies to sustain and develop their businesses Contributors to this volume detail the constraints placed on African entrepreneurs through rich case studies and challenge African leaders and international donors to review their own behaviors if they hope for African entrepreneurs to succeed Entrepreneurship in Africa Moses E. Ochonu, 2018-02-05 A tapestry of innovation ideas and commerce Africa and its entrepreneurial hubs are deeply connected to those of the past Moses E Ochonu and an international group of contributors explores the lived experiences of African innovators who have created value for themselves and their communities Profiles of vendors farmers craftspeople healers spiritual consultants warriors musicians technological innovators political mobilizers and laborers featured in this volume show African models of entrepreneurship in action As a whole the essays consider the history of entrepreneurship in Africa illustrating its multiple origins and showing how it differs from the Western capitalist experience As they establish historical patterns of business creativity these explorations open new avenues for understanding indigenous enterprise and homegrown commerce and their relationship to social economic and political debates in Africa today Uberpreneurs Peter Andrews, Fiona Wood, 2013-12-08 Exploring the lives and achievements of 36 extraordinary individuals from across 18 nations and every continent this book's champions innovators the disruptive individuals whose heroic visions and indomitable spirits are redefining the economic and social structure of our world Cultural Entrepreneurship in Africa Ute Röschenthaler, Dorothea Schulz, 2015-11-19 This book seeks to widen perspectives on entrepreneurship by drawing attention to the diverse and partly new forms of entrepreneurial practice in Africa since the 1990s Contrary to widespread assertions figures of success have been regularly observed in Africa since pre colonial times The contributions account for these historical continuities in entrepreneurship and identify the specifically new political and economic context within which individuals currently probe and invent novel forms of enterprise Based on ethnographically contextualized life stories and case studies of female and male entrepreneurs the volume offers a vivid and multi perspectival account of their strategies visions and ventures in domains as varied as religious proselytism politics tourism media music prostitution funeral organization and education African cultural entrepreneurs have a significant economic impact attract the attention of large groups of people serve as role models for many youths and contribute to the formation of new popular cultures Creative Hustling Robin Steedman, 2023-02-28 The first book length study of Nairobi based female filmmakers and how their dogged pursuit of opportunities innovation and cultural support is defining an industry Nairobi the capital of Kenya is home to something extraordinary and unlikely in this city the most critically acclaimed filmmakers both directors and producers are women Yet across the globe women make up less than 10 percent of film directors In Creative Hustling Robin Steedman takes a closer look at these remarkable women filmmakers viewing them not only as auteurs but also as entrepreneurs who are taking the lead in creating a vibrant and atypical screen media industry To understand their achievement Steedman theorizes hustling as not only a practice born out of necessity but also an inventive labor in its own right one that can create new spaces of community by carving new entrepreneurial pathways Through original empirical field research gathered over eight months in Nairobi Steedman describes how female filmmakers go about trying to create their films as well as the challenges they face in distributing those films in their local market Along the way she traces the history of the industry over the last fifteen years the lack of state support for these filmmakers undertakings the low social standing of the profession and the transnational conflicts that arise when Euro American funding is at the heart of Kenyan cinema Creative Hustling is a major contribution to the task of de Westernizing media industry studies imparting important lessons about what it takes to create and distribute creative work in a global age increasingly marked by uncertain work South Africa's Greatest Entrepreneurs ,2010-01-01 Kaapse Bibliotekaris ,2011 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 The Palgrave Handbook of Decolonising Entrepreneurship Bridget Irene,
