Africas Peacemaker Lessons From South African Conflict Mediation:

Africa's Peacemaker? Kurt Shillinger, 2009 South Africa has done much in the 15 years since the fall of apartheid to establish its leadership on the continent It has been a constant architect of Africa s new peace and security architecture and an advocate of new diplomatic norms Defence Diplomacy and National Security Strategy Ian Liebenberg, Dirk Kruijt, Shrikant Paranjpe, 2020-04-20 The post cold war era presented security challenges that at one level are a continuation of the cold war era at another level these phenomena manifested in new forms Whether the issues of economics and trade transfer of technologies challenges of intervention or humanitarian crisis the countries of the South previously pejoratively labelled Third World or developing countries have continued to address these challenges within the framework of their capabilities and concerns The volume explores defence diplomacies national security challenges and strategies dynamics of diplomatic manoeuvres and strategic resource management of Latin American southern African and Asian countries

Creating a South African Sub-Regional Conflict Transformation Model Noluthando Phungula, 2024-01-11 This book contributes to the current academic debate and scholarly research on conflict transformation in the Southern African Development Community SADC sub region It will serve as a guide on how conflict recurrences can best be tackled in the sub region and seeks to improve the transformation process of conflict and peace building in the Kingdom in the Sky and in the sub region at large The book will shed light on the road ahead for the SADC and its role in transforming conflict into positive peace and peace building and will contribute to discussions on the necessity of a conflict transformation model as a key tool in efforts to transform the state of recurring intrastate conflict in Lesotho Thus this book will also enhance the literature and discourse on sub regional organisations and their path towards conflict transformation on the African continent

International Security and Peacebuilding Abu Bakarr Bah, 2017-01-30 The end of the Cold War was to usher in an era of peace based on flourishing democracies and free market economies worldwide Instead new wars including the war on terrorism have threatened international regional and individual security and sparked a major refugee crisis This volume of essays on international humanitarian interventions focuses on what interests are promoted through these interventions and how efforts to build liberal democracies are carried out in failing states Focusing on Africa the Middle East and Europe an international group of contributors shows that best practices of protection and international state building have not been applied uniformly Together the essays provide a theoretical and empirical critique of global liberal governance and as they note challenges to regional and international cooperation they reveal that global liberal governance may threaten fragile governments and endanger human security at all levels Peace Studies for Sustainable Development in Africa Egon Spiegel, George Mutalemwa, Cheng Liu, Lester R. Kurtz, 2022-10-26 This book presents a snapshot of a major challenge and shares subjective views on various areas of conflict in Africa and the diverse theoretical and practical efforts to achieve peace Following an essential review of several real world conflict contexts on the African continent and attempts to come to terms with them critically as a first step the book explores the lessons learned to date with regard to peace studies in Africa

Sridharan, 2014-11-13 Drawing upon international relations theory this volume conceptualizes possible solutions to the various conflicts in South Asia It analyses the bilateral conflicts between India and Pakistan and other multilateral problems specific to this region Bringing together scholarship from several South Asian countries it offers a well rounded formulation of conflict resolution and cooperation building The volume employs a strong theoretical rubric empirical research and exhaustive fieldwork Its centralizing approach to sustain the diversity of perspectives and arguments makes it an indispensable contribution to strategic studies

Foreign Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Adekeye Adebajo, Kudrat Virk, 2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa It was rated the continent's largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20 It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa's post Apartheid foreign policy Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established Africa Western Asian and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts the book examines the current pattern of the country's foreign relations in impressive detail The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa's foreign policy peace making defence and security bilateral relations in Southern Central West Eastern and North Africa bilateral relations with the US China Britain France and Japan the country's key external multilateral relations with the UN the BRICS economic grouping the African Caribbean and Pacific Group ACP as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization WTO An essential resource for researchers the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies foreign policy history international relations international law security studies political economy and development studies

South African Foreign Policy Review: Volume 1 Chris Landsberg, Jo-Ansie van Wyk, 2012-12-27 The richness of public and academic discourses on the past present and future direction of South Africa's role in Africa and the world suggests that as a sub discipline of politics South African foreign policy is ready for a systematic and regular appraisal in the form of a series of publications that the Institute for Global Dialogue will call South African Foreign Policy Review This is also because constant changes in international and domestic circumstances impinge on the management and analysis of South Africa's foreign policy This the first review provides an important opportunity to build on existing foreign policy works in order to take stock of the road already travelled in the past decade or so This is crucial in laying some basis for anticipating the country's future role and considering the opportunities and challenges which future volumes of the review will consider This volume provides a wide ranging appraisal of the relationship between stated foreign policy goals and actual outputs and outcomes an assessment of how foreign policy has actually been operationalized and implemented To this end common themes in South African foreign policy provide the framework for the first review These include foreign policy decision making soft power dynamics in the foreign policy's strategic calculus diplomatic tools used economic diplomacy peace diplomacy and paradiplomacy South Africa's relations with key states in Africa in the global south and in the global north South Africa's approach to Africa multilateral global multilateralism governance The review hopes to stimulate further discussion and thinking on the challenges confronted and the future shape and direction of South Africa's foreign policy South African Foreign Policy Review: Volume 1 ,2012 Foreign Intervention in Africa after the Cold War Elizabeth Schmidt,2018-10-22 In Foreign Intervention in Africa after the Cold War interdisciplinary in approach and intended for nonspecialists Elizabeth Schmidt provides a new framework for thinking about foreign political and military intervention in Africa its purposes and its consequences She focuses on the quarter century following the Cold War 1991-2017 when neighboring states and subregional regional and global organizations and networks joined extracontinental powers in support of diverse forces in the war making and peace building processes During this period two rationales were used to justify intervention a response to instability with the corollary of responsibility to protect and the war on terror Often overlooked in discussions of poverty and violence in Africa is the fact that many of the challenges facing the continent today are rooted in colonial political and economic practices in Cold War alliances and in attempts by outsiders to influence African political and economic systems during the decolonization and postindependence periods Although conflicts in Africa emerged from local issues external political and military interventions altered their dynamics and rendered them more lethal Foreign Intervention in Africa after the Cold War counters oversimplification and distortions and offers a new continentwide perspective illuminated by trenchant case studies
