Afrikaans First Additional Language Study Guide 1:

Afrikaans Handbook & Study Guide Beryl Lutrin, 1999-09-01 A comprehensive Afrikaans Reference Book and set of notes that covers all areas of Afrikaans in one book Covers the basics and fills in the gaps Simple visual and logical format which makes it very practical and user friendly Colour coded for easy understanding recall and application Explanations are in English and examples in Afrikaans Works from Grade 4 to Grade 12 and even at Tertiary Level Suitable for Afrikaans First Additional Language and Afrikaans as a Foreign Language Handbook of Language & Ethnic Identity Joshua A. Fishman, Ofelia García, 2010 South African national bibliography, 1998 Classified list with author and title index

Negotiating Language Education Policies Kate Menken, Ofelia Garcia, 2010-02-25 Bridging the divide between policy and practice this book explores how educators interpret negotiate resist and re create language policies in schools focusing on their central role in this complex and dynamic process Afrikaans Linguistics WAM Carstens, Nerina Bosman, 2024-10-03 Offering a contemporary exploration of the multifaceted landscape of Afrikaans linguistics Afrikaans Linguistics Contemporary Perspectives marks a seminal contribution to the field This volume for the first time presents accessible insights into diverse linguistics subdisciplines inviting international scholars to familiarise themselves with Afrikaans language studies Throughout much of the late 19th and 20th centuries Afrikaans scholars predominantly communicated in Afrikaans resulting in a significant gap in the dissemination of knowledge about the language The chapters in this book written by prominent South Africans as well as international scholars working in the field of Afrikaans serve as a pivotal bridge by providing essential historical context while also paying attention to the development of Afrikaans linguistics during the 20th century The primary focus remains on illuminating 21st century research trajectories offering a comprehensive snapshot of contemporary scholarship in Afrikaans linguistics Resources in Education, 1997-04 The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages Lutz Marten, Ellen Hurst-Harosh, Nancy C. Kula, Jochen Zeller, 2025-08-19 This volume brings together leading scholars from Africa Europe the Americas and beyond to provide a detailed account of the languages of the Bantu family which cover an area from Cameroon and Kenya in the north to South Africa in the south The Bantu family is part of the Niger Congo phylum and one of the world's biggest language groups comprising around 500 languages The family includes major languages with large numbers of speakers such as Zulu Kinyarwanda and Swahili the most widely spoken and taught African language as well as many community languages and several endangered languages Bantu languages feature prominently in the complex and multilingual language ecologies that are characteristic of the linguistic situation in much of Africa and they provide rich evidence for the study of theoretical and comparative linguistics language contact and language change They play an important role in education commerce culture and artistic expression in the media and public discourse in governance and social justice and are central to the future of the continent and the well being of its communities The first part of The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages provides background and context with chapters exploring the history of research in the field language and prehistory in Bantu speaking Africa and typology and variation Chapters in the second part offer broad comparative overviews of Bantu phonology morphology syntax semantics and pragmatics socio and applied linguistics before Parts III VII cover more specific topics in Bantu linguistics across a variety of subfields ranging from structural issues such as the augment and melodic tone to historical and sociolinguistic topics such as Bantu languages in the diaspora and language policy and standardization The chapters in the final part offer individual structural overviews of a range of languages from across the Bantu speaking area The book will be an essential resource for students and researchers specializing in the Bantu languages and for typologists and comparative linguists more broadly

Germanic Standardizations Ana Deumert, Wim Vandenbussche, 2003-10-27 This volume presents a comparative socio historical study of the Germanic standard languages Afrikaans Danish Dutch English Faroese Frisian German Icelandic Low German Luxemburgish Norwegian Scots Swedish Yiddish as well as the Caribbean and Pacific Creole languages Each of the 16 original chapters systematically discusses central aspects of the standardization process including dialect selection codification elaboration and diffusion of the standard norm across the speech community as well as incipient processes of de standardization and re standardization The strongly comparative orientation of the contributions allow for the identification of broad similarities as well as intriguing differences across a wide range of historically and socially diverse language histories Two chapters by the editors provide an overview of the theoretical background and rationale of comparative standardization research and outline directions for further research in the area The volume will be of interest to language historians as well as sociolinguists in general

Language Narratives and Shifting Multilingual Pedagogies Belinda Mendelowitz, Ana Ferreira, Kerry Dixon, 2022-12-15 Winner of the UKLA Academic Book Award 2024 This book challenges monoglossic ideologies traditional language pedagogies and dominant forms of knowledge construction by foregrounding multilingual and multicultural students language narratives repertoires and identities The research is based on a sixteen year longitudinal study of a sociolinguistics course at an English language university and the language narratives produced by the first year education students The study was borne out of a need to create a critically inclusive course that would engage a cohort of students from socially and linguistically diverse backgrounds in contemporary South Africa Drawing on data from over 5 000 students who have journeyed through this course this book shows how a narrative heteroglossic pedagogy harnesses students multilingual strengths A close analysis reveals complex identity work by students located in the Global South The authors argue that decolonising language education is about reconceptualising language reconfiguring what knowledges are valued in the classroom and reshaping pedagogy

African Perspectives on the Teaching and Learning of English in Higher Education Alexandra Esimaje, Bertus van Rooy, Demola Jolayemi, Daniel Nkemeleke, Ernest Klu, 2023-05-23 This book brings together the work of African scholars and educators directly involved in initiatives to improve the teaching and learning of English in higher education across Africa Offering alternative perspectives across different African countries with examples of decolonised practice in research the book provides a critical discussion and examples of successful practice in the teaching of English in Africa Each chapter of the book reports on a specific context and a specific teaching and or learning initiative in higher education with emphasis on comparability of information and on clear evaluation and critical analysis of the intervention The editors offer a thoughtful comparison of different methods strategies and results to provide an authoritative reference to effective strategies for English teaching and learning The book paints a cohesive picture of the field of English language teaching in Africa and will be of great interest to researchers scholars and postgraduate students in the areas of applied linguistics English teaching and comparative education
