After The Crisis Using Storybooks To Help Children Cope

Alice Crosetto, Rajinder Garcha

After The Crisis Using Storybooks To Help Children Cope:

After the Crisis Cathy Grace, 2010 When a crisis shakes a child's life it is often up to teachers to recognize and identify signs that the child is suffering from continuing stress and to help parents make appropriate decisions regarding next steps. Although most teachers cannot provide therapy to children under traumatic stress they already have the tools they need to help children cope. Storybooks The literature based activities in After the Crisis help children who have been through a trauma. With activities and exercises that can be used in conjunction with 50 children's books teachers can use the discussion starters, writing activities and art activities in After the Crisis to promote children's ability to cope and heal. After the Crisis addresses numerous crises that can affect a child: Earthquakes, Epidemics and mass casualty incidents, Floods, Hurricanes, Tornadoes and major storms, Shelter experiences, Volcano eruptions, Death of a loved one. After the Crisis is the companion book to Preparing for Disaster: What Every Early Childhood Director Needs to Know.

The Disaster Planning Handbook for Libraries Mary Grace Flaherty, 2021-10-12 Libraries are in a unique position to aid communities during times of adversity and this comprehensive handbook's practical tools and expert guidance will help ensure that your library is thoroughly prepared for emergency response and recovery. Your library is a vital information hub and resource provider every single day and that's doubly true when calamity strikes. In fact your library's role as an essential community function during disasters is now encoded in U.S. law. Engaging as a partner in planning and preparedness will build much needed community support should disaster strike and even a basic plan will also save you time and stress later on. No matter where your library is in the disaster planning cycle this handbook will make the process clearer and less daunting. You'll get tools, activities, easy to adapt templates and hands on guidance on such topics as the six phases of disaster response, 15 first hand accounts of library disaster planning or responses helping you identify the library services most needed during a disaster, three essential factors that will shape the form of your disaster plan, preparing for hurricanes, tornadoes, fires, floods and earthquakes, ideas for connecting with your community's emergency response teams, federal government planning resources, pointers on working with state and local governments, a sample Memorandum of Understanding to outline mutual support for a speedier recovery, recommended courses and training many of which are free, targeted advice for archives and special collections, sample building inspection checklists and recommended games to help children and families prepare.

Resilience and Opportunity Amy Liu, Roland Vanglin, Richard M. Mizelle, 2011-08-18 Hurricanes Katrina and Rita devastated the Gulf Coast in 2005. Commentary and analysis typically focused on what went wrong in the post disaster emergency response. This forward looking book however presents a more cautiously optimistic view about the region's ability to bounce back after multiple disasters. Catastrophes come in different forms: hurricanes, recessions and oil spills to name a few. It is imperative that we learn how best to rebuild in the wake of disasters and what capacities and conditions are needed to improve future resilience. Since the devastating summer of 2005 leaders have made important inroads to restoring communities in more prosperous ways Resilience and Opportunity is an important contribution to our collective learning from a teachable moment Contributors Ivey Allen Foundation for the Mid South Lance Buhl Duke University Ann Carpenter Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta Robert A Collins Dillard University Mark S Davis Tulane University Law School Breonne DeDecker Brandeis University Karen B DeSalvo Tulane University School of Medicine Kathryn A Foster University at Buffalo Regional Institute SUNY Linetta Gilbert The Declaration Initiative Ambassador James Joseph Duke University Mukesh Kumar Jackson State University Luceia LeDoux Baptist Communities Ministries Silas Lee III Xavier University of Louisiana David A Marcello Tulane University Richard McCline Southern University Nancy T Montoya Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta Reilly Morse Mississippi Center for Justice Elaine Ortiz Greater New Orleans Community Data Center Andre Perry Loyola University New Orleans John L Renne University of New Orleans Kalima Rose PolicyLink Michael Schwam Baird Tulane University Jasmine M Waddell Brandeis University Nadiene Van Dyke New Orleans Police and Justice Foundation Alandra Washington W K Kellogg Foundation Frederick Weil Louisiana State University Leslie Willams LeaderShift Consulting Jon Wool Vera Institute of Justice
