After The Last Sky Edward Said:

After the Last Sky Edward W. Said, 1999 A searing portrait of Palestinian life and identity that is at once an exploration of Edward Said's unclaimable past and a testimony to the lives of those living in exile 125 photos After the Last Sky

Edward W. Said, 1999 Image and Ideology in Modern/Postmodern Discourse David B. Downing, Susan

Bazargan, 1991-01-01 This book addresses the function and status of the visual and verbal image as it relates to social political and ideological issues The authors first articulate some of the lost connections between image and ideology then locate their argument within the modernist postmodernist debates The book addresses the multiple trans disciplinary problems arising from the ways cultures authors and texts mobilize particular images in order to confront conceal work through or resolve contradictory ideological conditions Mapping Exile and Return Alain Epp Weaver, 2014-01-01 One of the most persistent if vexing issues facing not just theology but also political theory sociology and other disciplines is the ongoing Palestinian Israeli conflict For theology the problem is especially nettlesome on account of the church's shared history and tradition with the Jewish people Palestinians including Palestinian Christians bear the brunt of suffering and dispossession in the current situation yet are burdened even more by Christian political appropriation of Zionism Through an analysis of Palestinian refugee mapping practices for returning to their homeland Alain Epp Weaver takes up the troubled issue of Palestinian dispossession and argues against the political theology embedded in Zionist cartographic practices that refuse and seek to eliminate evidence of co existence Instead Alain Epp Weaver offers a political theology of redrawing the territory compatible with a bi national vision for a shared Palestinian Israeli future Edinburgh Companion to the

Postcolonial Middle East Ball Anna Ball, 2018-11-14 This Edinburgh Companion seeks to develop a postcolonial framework for addressing the Middle East The first collection of essays on this subject it assembles some of the world's foremost postcolonialists to explore the critical theoretical and disciplinary possibilities that inquiry into this region opens for postcolonial studies Throughout its twenty four chapters its focus is on literary and cultural critique It draws on texts and contexts from the late nineteenth to the early twenty first centuries as case studies and deploys the concept of post colonial modernity to reveal the enduring impact of colonial and imperial power on the shaping of the region And it covers a wide and significant range of political social and cultural issues in the Middle East during that period including the heritage of Orientalism in the region the roots and contemporary branches of the Israel Palestine conflict colonial history state formation and cultures of resistance in Egypt Turkey the Maghreb and the wider Arab world the clash of tradition and modernity in regional and transnational expressions of Islam the politics of gender and sexuality in the Arab world the ongoing crises in Libya Iraq Iran and Syria the Arab Spring and the Middle Eastern refugee crisis in Europe The films of Costa-Gavras

Homer B. Pettey, 2020-06-11 Costa Gavras is a seminal figure in French and international cinema A master of the political thriller he explores historical events through individual human stories thereby involving his audience in past and contemporary traumas from the horrors of the Holocaust through mid century international state terrorism and totalitarianism to the current global financial crisis With a career spanning half a century he remains one of cinema s most intriguing and enduring storytellers theorists and political commentators This collection of original essays charts and re examines Costa Gavras s career from Un homme de trop 1967 to Le capital 2012 Readable and carefully researched it will appeal to students and scholars of film as well as fans of the director s work

Encyclopedia of the Palestinians Philip Mattar, 2005 Presents the history of modern Palestine and biographies of important Palestinians

The New Yoder Peter Dula, Chris K. Huebner, 2010-01-01 The work of John Howard Yoder has become increasingly influential in recent years Moreover it is gaining influence in some surprising places No longer restricted to the world of theological ethicists and Mennonites Yoder has been discovered as a refreshing voice by scholars working in many other fields For thirty five years Yoder was known primarily as an articulate defender of Christian pacifism against a theological ethics guild dominated by the Troeltschian assumptions reflected in the work of Walter Rauschenbusch and Reinhold and Richard Niebuhr But in the last decade there has been a clearly identifiable shift in direction A new generation of scholars has begun reading Yoder alongside figures most often associated with post structuralism neo Nietzscheanism and post colonialism resulting in original and productive new readings of his work At the same time scholars from outside of theology and ethics departments indeed outside of Christianity itself like Romand Coles and Daniel Boyarin have discovered in Yoder a significant conversation partner for their own work This volume collects some of the best of those essays in hope of encouraging more such work from readers of Yoder and in hopes of attracting others to his important work

Memories of Our Future Ammiel Alcalay, 1999-12 This text features essays from Ammiel Alcalay covering Mediterranean culture Arabic literature the war in Bosnia the Israeli Palestinian conflict the destruction of Carthage and much more

Post-Millennial Palestine Rachel Gregory Fox, Ahmad Qabaha, 2021-02-01 Shortlisted for the Palestine Book Awards 2021 Post Millennial Palestine Literature Memory Resistance confronts how Palestinians have recently felt obliged to re think memory and resistance in response to dynamic political and regional changes in the twenty first century prolonged spatial and temporal dispossession and the continued deterioration of the peace process Insofar as the articulation of memory in post colonial contexts can be viewed as an integral component of a continuing anti colonial struggle for self determination in tracing the dynamics of conveying the memory of ongoing chronic trauma this collection negotiates the urgency for Palestinians to reclaim and retain their heritage in a continually unstable and fretful present The collection offers a distinctive contribution to the field of existing scholarship on Palestine charting new ways of thinking about the critical paradigms of memory and resistance as they are produced and represented in literary works published within the post millennial period Reflecting on the potential for the Palestinian narrative to recreate reality in ways that both document it and resist its brutality the critical essays in this collection show how Palestinian writers in the twenty first century critically and creatively consider the possible future s of their nation
