Bester, 1998 The Continuing Dialogue Brian Leslie Bishop, 2017-07-20 The I AM statements exclusive to the Fourth Gospel are seen as the attempt of the author s of that Gospel to present the nature and purpose of the earthly life of Jesus by engaging the imaginative faculty of the reader Succeeding generations of artists are considered as undertaking a similar task by engaging in an imaginative dialogue with the text There are five narratives that are peculiar to the Fourth Gospel The Wedding at Cana the Woman of Samaria the Woman Taken in Adultery the Raising of Lazarus and the Washing of Feet Five paintings based upon each narrative are considered in context These are taken from the early fourteenth century Duccio and Giotto to the twentieth and twenty first centuries Max Beckmann and the contemporary Icon writer Constantina Wood A sense of the loss experienced by the western church under the sanctions of the Protestant Reformation against visual imagery is conveyed This leads to a suggestion that a reassertion of the role of the aesthetics of Christian worship might be a unifying factor for a generation jaded by the pedantry that divides the Christian Church The Beauty of Holiness Brian Leslie Bishop, 2020-01-07 In this book Brian Bishop simply pauses to look at fifty seven beautiful images that feature the life and death of Jesus and the supper at which he appeared three days after his burial to two broken hearted disciples He finds the visual approach to the gospel stories rewarding and attempts to place the paintings in some historical context as an aid to understanding but essentially offers pauses for thought and reflection upon world changing events The book may be dipped into as time and interest allows The beautifully produced color images of wonderful works of art provide constant companionship The Usurer's Heart Anne Derbes, Mark Sandona, 2008 At the turn of the fourteenth century Enrico Scrovegni constructed the most opulent palace that the city of Padua had seen and he engaged the great Florentine painter Giotto to decorate the walls of his private chapel 1303 5 In that same decade Dante consigned Enrico s father a notorious usurer to the seventh circle of hell The frescoes rank with Dante s Divine Comedy as some of the great monuments of late medieval Italian culture and yet much about the fresco program is incompletely understood Most traditional studies of the Arena Chapel have examined the frescoes as individual compositions largely divorced from their original context almost as if they were panels detached from an altarpiece and hung on a museum wall for the viewing pleasure of the connoisseur Anne Derbes and Mark Sandona in contrast consider each image as part of an intricate network of visual and theological associations comparable to that of Dante s poem The authors show how this remarkable ensemble of paintings offers complex meanings meanings shaped by several interested parties patron confessor and painter The Usurer s Heart pieces together new historical evidence on the chapel s origins and describes the fresco program as in part an attempt to ameliorate the Scrovegni family s reputation It interprets the chapel s fresco program and the chapel s place in the heart of an ambitious and guilt ridden moneylender In the Light of Apollo Ethnikē Pinakothēkē, Mouseion Alexandrou Soutsou, 2003
