Against Schooling For An Education That Matters:

Against Schooling Stanley Aronowitz, 2015-12-03 In Against Schooling Stanley Aronowitz passionately raises an alarm about the current state of education in our country. Discipline and control over students Aronowitz argues are now the primary criteria of success and genuine learning is sacrificed to a new educational militarism. In an age where school districts have imposed testing teachers must teach to test and both teacher and student are robbed of their autonomy and creativity. The crisis extends to higher education where all but a few elite institutions are becoming increasingly narrowly focused and vocational in their teaching. With education lacking opportunity for self-reflection on broad social and historical dynamics Against Schooling asks: How will society be able to solve its most pressing problems? Aronowitz proposes innovative approaches to get schools back on track.

The New York Annotated Digest Victor Eugene Ruehl, 1916 Becoming Women/Becoming Workers Catherine Raissiguier, 1994-09-08 This book traces the experiences of young French and Algerian women students in a Parisian vocational school: how they negotiate their class, gender, and ethnic/racial identities in relation to school, family, romance, and future work in a changing and unpromising economy. Drawn from classroom observations and personal interviews, the book provides a theoretical framework for analyzing the complex network of cultural and historical discourses, limitations, and expectations that form the students' present lives and future outlook. The author links the micro and macro levels of her analysis by grounding her study in the nature of the French school, the discursive boundaries of French society, and the volatile French economy. The book contributes to an overall understanding of the processes of identity formation, class, race, ethnicity, and gender intersections, and women's responses to schooling and education.

Education in Maine Maine Department of Education, 1870 Key Legal Issues for Schools Charles J. Russo, 2013-01-04 School business officials (SBOs) must in many respects serve as all things to all people in their workplaces. Put another way, SBOs must be knowledgeable about a wide range of legal issues ranging from contracts to setting policy to state bidding laws, let alone constitutional matters involving the rights of students and teachers. Aware of the fact that issues involving the law are at the heart of many of an SBO's duties, the chapters in this edited book have been written by a diverse array of individuals with experience as educational leaders in schools and/or who possess significant expertise in the School Law. In light of the need to keep SBOs up to date on many issues in the ever-changing world of Education Law, this volume is divided into two parts. The first section deals with issues that primarily impact on the management of schools, while the second deals with the rights of students and teachers. More specifically, each of the chapters is designed to examine a specific area about which SBOs need information. While no single book can ever hope to cover all of the myriad of legal topics that SBOs and other educational leaders must master in their professional lives, this book will serve as an up-to-date and ready source of information to help keep them abreast of the many changes in the ever-evolving area of School Law.
