Ageing With Disability A Lifecourse Perspective Ageing And The Lifecourse:

Ageing with Disability Eva Jeppsson Grassman, Anna Whitaker, 2013-05-08 This is the first book to address the issue of ageing after a long life with disability It breaks new ground through its particular life course perspective examining what it means to age with a physical or mental disability and what the implications are of becoming old for people who have had extensive disabilities for many years These people may have had to leave the labour market early and the book looks at available care resources both formal and informal Ageing with disability challenges set ideas about successful ageing as well as some of those about disabilities The life course approach that is used unfolds important insights about the impact of multiple disabilities over time and on the phases of life The book highlights the meaning of care in unexplored contexts such as where ageing parents are caregivers or regarding mutual care in disabled couples These are areas of knowledge which have to date been totally neglected

Ageing with Disability, 2013 This book addresses the issue of ageing after a long life with disability It breaks new ground through its particular lifecourse perspective examining what it means to age with a physical or mental disability R sum de l diteur Population Ageing from a Lifecourse Perspective Kathrin Komp, Stina Johansson, 2016-06-01 Populations around the globe are ageing rapidly This demographic shift affects families market structures and social provisions This timely volume part of the Ageing and the Lifecourse series argues that the lifecourse perspective helps us understand the causes and effects of population ageing The lifecourse perspective suggests that individuals experiences at an early age can influence their decisions and behaviour at a later age This much needed volume combines insights from different disciplines and real life experiences to describe the theories and practices behind this idea It therefore caters to the needs of scholars practitioners and policy makers in a range of areas including sociology and political science

A Life Course Approach to Healthy Ageing Diana Kuh, Rachel Cooper, Rebecca Hardy, Marcus Richards, Yoav Ben-Shlomo, 2014 This title investigates the lifetime determinants of healthy ageing and their implications for policy and practice bringing together authorities in ageing research and knowledge transfer from across the world

Ageing, Independence, and the Life Course Sara Arber, 1993 Using a life course approach which emphasises the importance of recognising the effects of different life experiences on different groups of individuals and the interlinkage between phases of the life course the book explores the ways in which bases of structural advantage and disadvantage have cumulative impacts on the situation of older people Disability and Ageing Ann Leahy, 2023-01-10 Establishing a critical and interdisciplinary dialogue this text engages with the typically disparate fields of social gerontology and disability studies It investigates the subjective experiences of two groups rarely considered together in research people ageing with long standing disability and people first experiencing disability with ageing This book challenges assumptions about impairment in later life and the residual nature of the fourth age It proposes that the experience of disability in older age reaches beyond the bodily context and can involve not only a challenge to a sense of value and meaning in life but also ongoing efforts in response Disability and the Life Course Mark Priestley, 2001-07-05 Disability and the Life Course first published in 2001 explores the global experience of disability using a novel life course approach The book explores how disabling societies impact on disabled people's life experiences and highlights the ways in which disabled people have acted to take more control over their own lives It provides a unique combination of analysis policy issues and autobiography offering the reader a rare opportunity to make links between the theoretical the political and the personal in a single volume The material is set in a truly international context with contributions from thirteen different countries bringing together established and emerging writers both disabled and non disabled The book bridges some important gaps in the existing disability literature by including issues relevant to disabled people of all ages and with different kinds of impairments and also by offering a unique analysis of the relationship between disability and generation in a changing world Disabilities and the Life Course Heather E. Dillaway, Carrie L. Shandra, Alexis A. Bender, 2023-07-31 Featuring a framework rarely applied in the field of disability studies this book explores not only a range of disabilities and impairments but also a diverse array of life course experiences deepening knowledge across both fields for the widest possible impact A Life Course Approach to the Epidemiology of Chronic Diseases and Ageing Diana Kuh, Ezra Susser, Joanna M. Blodgett, Yoav Ben-Shlomo, 2025-01-29 A Life Course Approach to the Epidemiology of Chronic Diseases and Ageing Third Edition outlines how biological and social factors during gestation childhood adolescence and earlier adult life influence later life health and disease It also looks at whether and how to intervene to improve health outcomes This revised third edition is fully updated to reflect the new data that has emerged as well as our new understanding of health and global challenges It brings new chapters on a life course approach to the long term health consequences of climate change and the COVID 19 pandemic It examines the current and potential use of new technologies methods and collaborative approaches in life course studies and provides updated reviews of the latest life course evidence for age related chronic diseases It discusses how life course research is being used and could be used to improve population health in high middle and low income countries identifying how and when interventions may be most effective New chapters on multimorbidity translational geroscience and exposomics have also been added

Handbook on Ageing with Disability Michelle Putnam, Christine Bigby, 2021-03-10 Mainstream gerontological scholarship has taken little heed of people ageing with disability and they have also been largely overlooked by both disability and ageing policies and service systems The Handbook on Ageing with Disability is the first to pull together knowledge about the experience of ageing with disability It provides a broad look at scholarship in this developing field and across different groups of people with disability in order to form a better understanding of commonalities across groups and identify unique facets of ageing within specific groups Drawing from academic personal and clinical perspectives the chapters address topics stemming from how the ageing with disability experience is framed the heterogeneity of the population ageing with disability and the disability experience issues of social exclusion health and wellness frailty later life and policy contexts for ageing with disability in various countries Responding to the need to increase access to knowledge in this field the Handbook provides guideposts for researchers practitioners and policy makers about what matters in providing services developing programmes and implementing policies that support persons ageing with long term disabilities and their families
