

Part 1

For each of the two issues, write one paragraph in part 1 and answer the following questions.

1. What positions and values are reflected in your paragraph on the issue to which you respond? What government role is most important?

The issues of safety, health, and education are the most important for the government.

2. Do your values and positions reflect those of groups active in the United States? Explain your answer.

My values are safety, health, and education. I think that the government should be able to provide safety, health, and education.
