Bruce Jenner Zehnkampf:

The Evolution of Bruce Jenner The Washington Post, 2015-03-03 Bruce Jenner captured America's attention by shattering world records in the Decathlon at the 1976 Summer Olympics. Launched onto the world stage, Jenner was young, photogenic, and an All American. He humbly accepted the adulation of a nation and has stayed a household name ever since, even more so in recent years as the patriarch of one of America's most famous and infamous families, the Kardashian Jenner clan. Almost forty years later, the press has been covering Jenner's transition from male to female, and should he come out publicly, it would make him the highest profile person ever to come out as transgender. Living life proudly and openly, Jenner would serve as a role model for much of the transgender community. But not for all. His path has been controversial, as some advocates see the celebrity glare given off by his connection to the Kardashian family as exploitative, and his public persona making him a less than ideal spokesperson for transgendered people. Bruce Jenner, who seemingly always being watched by crowds, now finds himself more scrutinized than ever.

Don Holst, Marcia S. Popp, 2004-12-22 This book of interviews with Olympic track and field athletes highlights those whose lives have revealed courage, persistence, and decency both on and off the field. After their great careers ended, they went on to become authors, teachers, coaches, radio and television sports commentators, consultants, congressmen, actors, businessmen, military officers, social workers, and ministers. Many continued in athletics long after their days as Olympians. The Olympic track and field athletes include Glenn Cunningham (middle distances), Lee Calhoun (high hurdles), Ken Doherty (decathlon), Dick Fosbury (high jump), Bruce Jenner (decathlon), Abel Kiviat (middle distances), Bob Mathias (decathlon), Al Oerter (discus throw), Bob Richards (pole vault), Wes Santee (middle distances), Jackson Scholz (sprints), Bill Toomey (decathlon), Forrest Towns (high hurdles), Craig Virgin (long distances), Archie Williams (long sprints), John Woodruff (middle distances), and Olympic coaches Payton Jordan and Berny Wagner. They talk about the influences in their lives that helped them develop their values, their first memories of competition and participation in their sport, their educational experiences, the problems they faced when they were active competitors, the problems athletes today face, and many other topics.

American Decathletes Frank Zarnowski, 2024-10-16 In the 20th century, American male decathletes have won 10 Olympic medals and set 22 world decathlon records. From Dennis Adama, a world class high jumper while at Indiana State University, to Matt Zuber, who won 8 out of his 41 career decathlons, this work summarizes the career records of 319 of the most important American decathletes of the 20th century, including Jim Thorpe, Dan O'Brien, Bob Mathias, Rafer Johnson, and Bruce Jenner. All Olympians, international team members, national and collegiate champions, and members of the United States National team are profiled. Each entry describes the individual athlete's accomplishments and provides a statistical record of his entire decathlon career.

A section on decathlon coaches and a comprehensive list of all world and United States decathlon rankings are provided

The Waterfront Danny Martineau Jr.,2013-12 While growing up I was fascinated with the world around me I had an admiration for animals and a love for both the food and culture of the time Being raised on a campground in rural southern New England was exciting but transitioning to city life was challenging It was difficult for me to let go of the 1970s I felt it was the best decade to be a kid No matter what challenges the future would bring I always found myself returning to the woods to find solitude The vast campground teeming with wildlife manifests itself in both majestic beauty and eerie encounters It is a splendid forum for the exploration of youngsters full of imagination The waterfront is the defining feature of the campground the epicenter of activity like the sea it is both aesthetic and haunting Somehow the waterfront possesses an intrinsic quality that is a crucial ingredient in both creating and preserving memories it is truly the thread that binds the novel together
