A Strategy For Southern Europe Ideas Special Reports

Alessandra Corrado, Carlos de Castro, Domenico Perrotta

A Strategy For Southern Europe Ideas Special Reports:

Southern Europe? Martin Baumeister, Roberto Sala, 2015-10-08 Gegenwärtig erlebt der Süden Europas in der öffentlichen Debatte eine neue Konjunktur. Mit Vorliebe wird dabei ein europäischer Nord-Süd-Gegensatz heraufbeschworen, ohne jedoch auf seine lange Geschichte zu blicken. Wirtschaftlich und politisch unterentwickelt, unterschieden sich Italien, Spanien, Portugal und Griechenland nach dem Zweiten Weltkrieg von den sogenannten westeuropäischen Gesellschaften. Zu Beginn des 21. Jahrhunderts schien diese Ungleichheit überwunden. Nun droht die Schuldenkrise den Kontinent erneut zu spalten. Die Beiträge hinterfragen gängige Annahmen und Bilder von Südeuropa und ergründen, inwiefern der Süden einen homogenen Raum mit strukturellen Gemeinsamkeiten darstellt. The Oxford Handbook of Migration Crises Dr. Cecilia Menjívar, Dr. Marie Ruiz, Dr. Immanuel Ness, 2019-01-16 The objective of The Oxford Handbook of Migration Crises is to deconstruct, question and redefine through a critical lens what is commonly understood as migration crises. The volume covers a wide range of historical, economic, social, political and environmental conditions that generate migration crises around the globe. At the same time, it illuminates how the media and public officials play a major role in framing migratory flows as crises. The volume brings together an exceptional group of scholars from around the world to critically examine migration crises and to revisit the notion of crisis through the context in which permanent and non-permanent migration flows occur. The Oxford Handbook of Migration Crises offers an understanding of individuals in societies, socio-economic structures and group processes. Focusing on migrants, departures and arrivals in all continents, this comprehensive handbook explores the social dynamics of migration crises with an emphasis on factors that propel these flows, as well as the actors that play a role in classifying them and in addressing them. The volume is organized into nine sections. The first section provides a historical overview of the link between migration and crises. The second looks at how migration crises are constructed, while the third section contextualizes the causes and effects of protracted conflicts in producing crises. The fourth focuses on the role of climate and the environment in generating migration crises, while the fifth section examines these migratory flows in migration corridors and transit countries. The sixth section looks at policy responses to migratory flows. The last three sections look at the role media and visual culture, gender and immigrant incorporation play in migration crises.

Rethinking European Social Democracy and Socialism Alan Granadino, Stefan Nygård, Peter Stadius, 2022-03-21 With a combined focus on social democrats in Northern and Southern Europe, this book crucially broadens our understanding of the transformation of European social democracy from the mid 1970s to the early 1990s. In doing so, it revisits the transformation of this ideological family at the end of the Cold War and before the launch of Third Way politics and examines the dynamics and power relations at play among European social democratic parties in a context of nascent globalisation. The chronological, methodological and geographical approaches adopted allow for a more nuanced narrative of change for European social democracy than the hitherto dominant centric perspective. This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of social democracy the European Centre left political parties ideologies and more broadly to comparative politics and European politics and history The Introduction chapter of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Migration and Agriculture Alessandra Corrado, Carlos de Castro, Domenico Perrotta, 2016-07-28 In recent years Mediterranean agriculture has experienced important transformations which have led to new forms of labour and production and in particular to a surge in the recruitment of migrant labour The Mediterranean Basin represents a very interesting arena that is able to illustrate labour conditions and mobility the competition among different farming models and the consequences in terms of the proletarianization process food crisis and diet changes Migration and Agriculture brings together international contributors from across several disciplines to describe and analyse labour conditions and international migrations in relation to agri food restructuring processes This unique collection of articles connects migration issues with the proletarianization process and agrarian transitions that have affected Southern European as well as some Middle Eastern and Northern African countries in different ways The chapters present case studies from a range of territories in the Mediterranean Basin offering empirical data and theoretical analysis in order to grasp the complexity of the processes that are occurring This book offers a uniquely comprehensive overview of migrations territories and agro food production in this key region and will be an indispensable resource to scholars in migration studies rural sociology social geography and the political economy of agriculture

Immigrant Integration in Southeast Europe Laura Elina Coşkun, 2025-11-12 This book presents a comparative analysis of the integration outcomes of immigrants in Southeast Europe uncovering cross country differences and ascertaining if they relate to the national integration policy frameworks within the context of the European Union EU accession Applying a multidimensional approach to measure immigrant integration and investigating a broad range of indicators such as employment income social participation and naturalization this book reveals that there is a large cross country variation in immigrant integration outcomes and some differences in outcomes can indeed be dotted along the EU's borderlines as gaps between immigrants and non immigrants are especially large in member states in the region The findings highlight the struggles EU member states in Southeast Europe face in adjusting to the more dynamic immigration landscape that EU accession brings This book will be a valuable resource to scholars and students of immigrant integration migration governance European studies and Southeast European studies as well as those with an interest in EU enlargement and immigration policymaking

Democratic Greece and the West, 1974-1983 Ioannis Chalkos, 2025-09-26 This book examines Greece's evolving relationship with the West from 1974 to 1983 focusing on the country's transition from a peripheral European state to a central member of the Western community Adopting a multilateral approach the author investigates Greece's interactions with key institutions such as the European Economic Community EEC and NATO as well as bilateral relations with major Western powers exploring their role in shaping

Athens external orientation and internal stability The book highlights the challenges Greece faced in balancing its national interests particularly security concerns regarding Turkey with its broader integration into Western structures Covering a decade of critical developments the book presents 1983 as a pivotal year in Greek history signifying the establishment of a historical consensus on the country's external orientation Highlighting an often overlooked event in Cold War history Greece's integration into the West this book provides useful reading for those researching international relations Greek history the Cold War as well as European diplomatic history more broadly

Routledge Handbook on Cooperation, Interdependencies and Security in the Mediterranean Elena Calandri, Karolina Golemo, Jesús

Ventura-Fernández, 2024-11-29 This Handbook provides an essential overview of the contemporary dynamics of the Mediterranean region Conceptualising the Mediterranean as both a socio cultural area and a geopolitical entity it considers the basin both as a whole and as a set of interacting subregions Established scholars offer new perspectives and approaches from international history postcolonial studies migration studies geography private international law and public international law environmental and tourism studies to reappraise the long term trends and ruptures that shape security interdependence and cooperation These contributions explain the Mediterranean's long established role as a crossroads and demonstrate the political economic ecological and cultural meanings of security The book shows how interdependence in economic environmental cultural and human sectors continues to bind the Mediterranean together as migration flows across the sea environmental change requires common action legal systems coexist and multifaceted identities growing cultural awareness and human rights remain on the political agenda This volume will be an invaluable resource for graduate students researchers and professionals seeking a comprehensive multidisciplinary approach to the historical political geographic and socio cultural complexities challenges and potential of the area

Small States in EU Policy-Making Anna-Lena Högenauer, Matúš Mišík, 2024-04-30 Small States in EU Policy Making analyses how small states try to impact European Union policy making through a range of strategies With the last rounds of enlargement and Brexit the number and weight of small states in the European Union have steadily increased At the same time small states face distinct challenges in different institutions which may impact their strategies Nonetheless the existing literature primarily focuses on the Council of the European Union and the European Council and offers few insights into how small states navigate the other institutions The contributions to this volume examine how small states can wield influence in different institutions arguing that they do indeed pursue different strategies depending on institutional context The policy case studies on the EU's foreign and security policies confirm these findings small states can have influence in EU policy making and can create situations where their needs are met They are most likely to succeed when they build foreign policy coalitions when they anticipate major economic developments and when they manage to acquire a high level of expertise in a policy area However the case studies also show that there is a risk of small states becoming policy takers in cases where they cannot provide leadership in terms of ideas and expertise and or fail to build political weight through coalitions This book will be of interest to academics and practitioners of European politics and the EU in particular as well as policy makers and practitioners working on small states The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
